Holiday Reunions Set By Families in Village

The Yuletide season specializes in large family groups and lots of children which is exactly the case with Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. Cruice of Burning Bush.

Monday evening all the adults of the family gathered at the Birmingham home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Keating and enjoyed their gift exchange. Others in the group were her mother, Mrs. Howard T. Keating, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Faught and another brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Keating, Jr.

Christmas morning the entire family gathered at the mother's home, Mrs. Howard T. Keating of 15 Mile and Laber roads where the children have their gifts. There are 15 children, all under the age of nine.

December 18 Mrs. Cruice entertained her bridge club at Christmas luncheon and cards.

Sunday the couple entertained at a 12:30 brunch for close friends and relatives. Christmas wall decorations and the centerpiece were greens sprayed white and trimmed with gold leaves, balls and ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Brodie of Tottenham road will entertain at an open house for 85 Sunday from 4 p.m. on. Guests will be from the Village, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

Their daughter arrived home Friday from Marjory Webster Junior college in Washington, D. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Rennell of Cranbrook road entertained at an open house for 60 guests Sunday from 5 p.m. on. Guests were mostly from the Village.

With them for Christmas dinner and to spend the day were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Rennell of Detroit.

Robert Scheel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scheel of Waddington road is home for the holidays from Michigan State university where he is a junior, majoring in business administration.

The family will spend Christmas day with Scheel's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scheel and family in Detroit.

Coed at Denison

Michelo Friel, a freshman at Denison university, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Friel of Cambridge road recently participated in the 53rd annual rendition of Handel's "Messiah" in Swasey chapel.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—call the society editor about them.

MRS. GLEN C. REHFUSS, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Rehfuss Honeymoon to Bermuda

Five attendants in white silk organza and lace gowns preceded Elizabeth Jane Wallace down the aisle of the First Methodist church for her marriage Saturday evening to Glen Curtis Rehfuss, Jr. Dr. Henry Hitt Crane and Dr. A. F. Runke performed the 8 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald James Wallace of Fairfax road, Birmingham, wore a wedding gown fashioned of white taffeta and lace featuring a scooped neckline, tucked bodice and chapel train.

HER FINGER-TIP VEIL of silk illusion was caught to a small crown of eleven lace embroidered with pearls. She carried a white satin covered Bible with orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

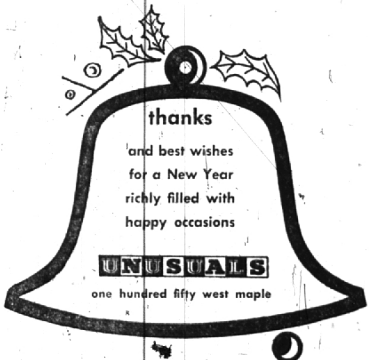

Maid of honor was Peggy Anthony. Bridesmaids were Sandra Stinson, Jane McKenzie, Ann Murphy and Mrs. Robert Henderson. With their dresses, styled with bouffant skirts, cummerbunds and boat necks, they carried white fur muffs with red carnations and holly.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Curtis Rehfuss of Sandusky, Ohio, asked John Rehfuss to be best man. Ushers were Harry Wallace II, George Stradley II, John Buchanan, Williams Crecelius, William Mahony and Arthur Spencer.

THE BRIDESMOTHER chose a grey chiffon dress trimmed with a deeper grey satin and Mrs. Rehfuss selected a mauve taffeta and lace dress with matching accessories.

A reception at the Plum Hollow Golf club followed the services. The couple left for a honeymoon to Bermuda following the reception.

The bride changed to a green sheath with cognac accessories to start her travel. Mr. and Mrs. Rehfuss will reside in Boston.
