

Graefield-Derby Guild Members Exchange Gifts at Holiday Party

The St. Jane De Chantal guild, Troyton Manor, had its annual Christmas party in the newly decorated games room of Mrs. Hugh Soufy, 1109 Brooklawn, Dec. 16.

Mrs. Thomas Schulte, chairman, with the help of Mrs. Leo Clougherty, Mrs. William Vocht and Mrs. Maurice Reardon planned the evening with games based on the holiday motif.

The women arranged such exchange gifts for the other members and food and toys to be given to a needy family in the parish. Members included Mrs. Hudson Decker, Mrs. John Ward, Mrs. Thomas Anderson, Mrs. Maurice Baumann and Mrs. Charles Penninger.

Others who enjoyed the get-together were Mrs. Robert Dyla, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Robert Kaufman, Mrs. Donald Nanny, Mrs. John Morrison, Mrs. William Taylor and Mrs. Robert Distler.

Mrs. Corle Fisher, 1904 Derby, was hostess for a bon voyage luncheon recently for three of her close friends who will board a plane soon for an around the world sojourn.

Guests of honor were Mrs. A. D'Agastino, Mrs. A. Hoover and Mrs. J. Laub, all of Birmingham. To carry out the traveling motif Mrs. Fisher used as her centerpiece what she calls an international tree made up of dolls dressed in their native costumes and flags from the various countries the ladies will visit.

An early tree trimming and brunch party was given by Mrs. Jane Forton and Joan Ford, 1650 Graefield. The former teaches at Harlan school and the latter at Pembroke. Both will travel to another part of Michigan for the holiday vacation.

Getting in the Christmas spirit were Miss Carol Sheppard, Kathleen Gavins, Jim Elovich, Charles Hood, Bruce Best and Clarence Brown.

chairman, Mrs. Joseph Kaufmann and Mrs. Edwin Casenhiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown, 1029 Graefield, enjoyed recently a 17-day vacation in N. Miami beach, Fla.

While there they did some sight-seeing, spent time on the inviting beaches and especially enjoyed a boat tour around military row.

Newcomers to Troyton Manor are Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Cornell, 1870 Withersbee, and children, Peter, 7 years old, Christina, 5 years old and Sonja, three years old. The two older children will attend Pembroke school.

The Cornells moved here from Ann Arbor, Cornell is associated with the Harley, Ellington and Day architectural firm where he is a designer. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Mrs. Cornell received her schooling in Sweden before coming to the United States 10 years ago. The Cornells both enjoy bridge and oil painting and when time permits Mrs. Cornell sews. She has just finished making a rag.

A new member in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Crane, Graefield, is Stephanie Anne, born Oct. 27 in Detroit.

She was welcomed home by her excited 17-month-old brother, Christopher.

The grandparents are anxiously waiting to see the children, who hope someday to travel to see them in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKinney of Norwich road proudly announce the arrival of their first grandchild, Tim Scott Wickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Wickman, born Dec. 6.

The Wickmans are feeding with the McKinnies since they returned from Mountain Home air force base in Boise, Idaho, where Wickman completed his service requirements.

The young aunt and uncle, Elaine and Larry are especially excited to help care for him.

A short vacation in New York to visit relatives and friends was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe J. Franki and 18-month-old son, Philip.

The Derby road bridge club met recently in the home of Mrs. Ed. Gabert for their annual Christmas party.

Instead of an evening of bridge the ladies wrapped gifts and decorated food baskets to be taken to a needy family they have adopted for the past two years today.

Members of the group include Mrs. Franklin Bens, Mrs. Coyle Fisher, Mrs. John Fisher, Mrs. Allan Diebold, Mrs. Jack Klesme, Mrs. Richard Monteth, Mrs. Claude Phelps, Mrs. Frank Seeburger, Mrs. Charles Greene, Mrs.

Gifts for The Ladies—Over 60

Birmingham Community House is continually fulfilling its slogan "a house with a heart" . . . and again a Yuletide party honored Senior Workshop members. Spry ladies, all over 60, were entertained with an organ-piano duet by Mrs. Clifford Baugh and her 77-year-old mother, Mrs. Nettie Morford. Mrs. Morford bought a piano for her daughter when she was married and made her promise to keep up her music. A year ago Mrs. Morford decided to take up organ playing and taught herself with the help of her daughter. She practices on the average of an hour a day and says it has done wonders for her arthritis. Among those present for the program and presentation of gift with Mrs. Morford (seated) were (from left) Mrs. Lillie Smith, Mrs. Clifford Baugh, Mrs. Emma Taup, Mrs. William H. Buringame, original instigator of the workshop, Mrs. Dewey Waterman and Mrs. Frank Galbreath.

Coeds in Choir

University of Michigan choir recently presented its annual Christmas program of choral music in Hill auditorium. Members of the choir from the Birmingham area were Sharon Connolly, Nancy Clark, Linda Esterline, Nina Slavson and Judith Nelson.

Joseph Rivard and Mrs. F. W. Talbot.

Before attending the performance of "No Time for Sergeants", Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr., 1659 Withersbee, entertained two couples for cocktails.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hastings of Bloomfield Village and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Diamond of Berkley.

Mt. Holly Ski Area

FACILITIES
This year, the entire ski area has been redesigned to meet the increased needs of beginning and intermediate skiers. Thousands of yards of earth have been moved to make the slopes larger, wider, smoother . . . and completely safe. The beginner's area, with its easy slope and special slow moving rope tow, is among the finest to be found in the country. All slopes are serviced with electrically powered rope tows and are fully illuminated for night skiing. No matter what the weather, scientific slope making equipment is always on hand to insure uniform, top-notch conditions for a minimum of 100 days each season.
