HAPPY NEW YEAR

from

A. L. DOENGES CO.

Prescription for Profit: A Want Ad by phone or mail.

Our system of jurisprudence is said to be the best ever devised. The law grants one the claim of innocence until proved guilty. This allowance of innocence came after many centuries of unfair, brutal dispensation of "justice" by many forms of tyranny . . . and many lives were sacrificed to bring it about.

The Birmingham Eccentric

SECTION C

Thursday, December 26, 1957

News Highlights for January - June of 1957

(Continued from Page 1-A)

new, modern Harlan school for which footings are being poured this week.

Virginia Hills Penrose chose a gown of white lace and American beauty satin to make her debut at a tea dance in the Little club, Detroit.

LaVerne A. Hovey of Lauderdale, Southfield township, retired this week from Michigan Bell Telephone Co. after more than 48 years of service.

Twice within the past two months a young couple was attacked while parked in an auto in the area of Pierce road, used as a lover's lane between 12 and 13 Mile roads.

Issue of January 10

Eight million dollars in property and two million dollars in cash was given to Michigan State university, when Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson transferred title to their 1400-acre estate, Meadow Brook Farms, seven miles northeast of Birmingham.

Councilwoman Kathryn V. Feyereisen, who has served on city council since Lathrup incorporation in Dec., 1953, turned in her resignation at the city offices.

An intern program has begun at Beaumont hospital, signalizing its complete medical development, according to Owen Pinkerman, hospital superintendent.

Not only did the Donald C. Zuehlsdorff family win the Birmingham Eccentric's first baby contest by having the first baby of the year, but they also had the second baby of the year. The Zuehlsdorffs had twins, Scott Donald and Tracey Ann.

The board of directors of Forest Lake Country Club announced the appointment of John F. Maher as club manager.

Issue of January 17

Irving A. Duffy, 85 Manor, headed the list of six Birmingham area Ford Motor Co. executives who this week were appointed to new positions by Company President Henry Ford II.

Mrs. George V. Melas, wife of the Greek ambassador to the United States, was guest of honor at a tea at the Overhill road home of Mrs. Willard Henry Holt.

An incinerator for Lathrup school headed a list of improvements for schools in the district approved by the Southfield board of education.

First Presbyterian, boasting a string of six victories and St. James Episcopal, with five, lead the Birmingham YMCA church basketball league as mid-season nears.

West Bloomfield township board voted to raise its elected officials' salaries $700 to $1,500 a year. The supervisor's salary, now $6,000, was increased to $7,500 with the $1,200 car allowance remaining the same.

Issue of January 24

Plans for Birmingham's new YMCA building took a big step forward this week as architects were hired to design the building. The first $100,000 unit is expected to be ready in 1958.

Police are investigating the robbery-stabbing of a 32-year-old Franklin Village man who was attacked by two men as he waited for a traffic light to change at 12 Mile and Telegraph. Andrew Przytulski, stabbed once, was robbed of $210.

Although she was born Dec. 11, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Dooley of Meadowood drive are still amazed at their good fortune, for Alyce Marie Dooley is the first girl to be born into the family in 36 years.

Bloomfield Hills board of education named the architects for both its proposed new elementary and junior high schools to be built on adjoining sites on Quarton road.

The sale of 10 acres of vacant land in Troy township to the Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit was announced. The property will be used for a new parish and school.

Issue of January 31

New businesses and additions to existing Birmingham commercial structures would have to provide more parking space than presently required if an amendment, discussed by city commissioners, is subsequently adopted.

"Lew", as he was known to his sixth grade classmates at Pembroke school, was killed when he darted into Hunter boulevard near Maple. He was the only child of the Lewis Nieweths, who moved from Indianapolis in October.

Council will take a look at several storm water relief system proposals with engineers before asking Lathrup residents to approve any bonding proposals to pay for a system which council believes will end basement flooding.

Two fires in Bloomfield township resulted in total losses of a house under construction on Adams road and a barn on the property of Robert Vanderkloot.

Two Birmingham city commissioners will run for re-election, but Birmingham's mayor will not. Commissioners Florence Willett and William Roberts will be in the April 1 race.

Issue of February 7

Eleanor Roosevelt, Bennet Cerf, Mrs. Peter Marshall and Dr. Robert Maynard Hutchins are four speakers slated for next season's Town Hall series.

A series of rear-end collisions on Telegraph near 13 Mile road tied up both north and south traffic for more than an hour.

Formal dedication of a $250,000 six-room addition to the Walnut Lake elementary school took place in the school's multi-purpose room.

Bloomfield Art Association president pro tem Robert A. Thom announced at the association's organizational meeting that the Detroit Institute of Art is planning a suburban division, whereby programs and exhibits after being shown in the mother institute, will be circulated to suburban art centers.

Retired men and those over 65 in Birmingham are being invited to join a new group being organized by the city recreation department.

Issue of February 14

Fear swept through the Birmingham area when Oakland county's phantom sniper went on a three-hour woman-shooting spree, wounding two and narrowly missing several others before being captured by Royal Oak police.

A Birmingham attorney, Charles Delbridge, announced he was seeking the one-year vacancy on the Birmingham city commission resulting from Manley Bailey's resignation.

Convent of the Sacred Heart alumnae and parents of the convent's students plan to gather at the present school in Detroit to discuss the fund raising campaign now underway for a new convent in Bloomfield Hills.

Oakland county's proposed new office and courthouse on Telegraph road at Pontiac's western limits was defended against minority groups which want it retained in downtown Pontiac.

State highway officials have agreed to immediate installation of a traffic light at Hunter and Oak, Birmingham City Manager Harold Schone revealed.

Issue of February 21

With Birmingham's first ice skating rink only in its first full year of operation, the Eton park rink is presenting nearly 400 youthful skaters in an ice show.

Speed limit signs requested a year ago for Green Lake and Richardson roads finally have been approved by both the county road commission and the state police.

Mrs. Irene E. Murphy of Bon-

(Continued on Next Page)

KRESGE'S

NEW YEAR'S

Party Goods and Noisemakers

Make this year's party the best you've ever given! Get a big selection of fun-hats, noisemakers and table-decorations . . . reasonably priced at Kresge's.

Gaily Trimmed Hats	10c
Fringed Blowouts	2 for 5c
Colorful Dot Confetti	10c
Bright Ribbon Serpentine	10c
Happy New Year Napkins	19c
Paper Table Covers	29c
8" Printed Paper Plates	19c
Hot Drink Paper Cups	19c

WEST MAPLE AT HENRIETTA

Cupid Makes Visit

Obliging minister, the Rev. Emil Kontz, officiated at the marriage of two Hungarian couples in January at his Larchlea residence. From top to bottom are Dr. and Mrs. Kontz, Terez and Istvan Kerekes and Clara and Szilard Kiss.

Merry Christmas Merry Christmas Merry Christmas Merry Christmas Merry Christmas Merry Christmas Merry Christmas Merry Christmas Merry Christmas

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

The mistletoe's above the door,
The mantel's hung with pine,
And every frosted windowpane
Is bright with candleshine . . .

At last the children are in bed
And parents smile to see
The growing pile of dreams-come-true
Beneath the star-tipped tree.

Far off, the church bells bless the night
With wind-blown, silvery chime—
May Joy and Peace be with us all
Until next Christmas-time!

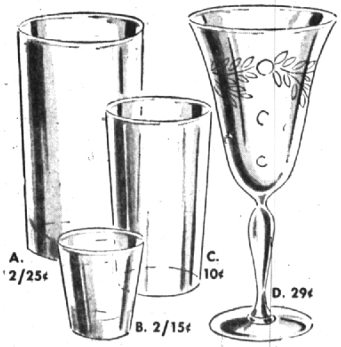
—MAUREEN MURDOCH

CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY

Get Ready for Holiday Entertaining.....with

KRESGE'S

Party Glassware



10¢ – 29¢

A. 10 Oz. Straight Side Shams 15c
B. ¾-½ Ounce Glasses . . . . . 2/15¢
C. 8 Oz. Shell Tumbler . . . . . 10¢
D. "Willow Moon" Goblet, all sizes . . 29¢
Double Old Fashioned Glasses . . . . . 15¢-19¢
Plain & Fancy Cut Stemware . . . . . .49¢ - 59¢

Quantities of each for large parties

WEST MAPLE AT HENRIETTA

Season's Greetings

We have just completed our second Christmas Season in our new Store—the biggest Christmas we have ever had. We would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to you our friends and customers for the pleasure we receive in being of service to you.

From Lloyd and Arthur Lake and all the other employees at Lakes' Jewelers our heartiest wishes for a happy holiday season and a prosperous New Year.

LAKES'

JEWELERS

"The Sterling Store of Birmingham"