Bloomfield West Social Briefs

The busy holiday schedule of the Martins Laitura began Sunday morning with an "after church" breakfast at their home on E. Dartmouth road.

This affair was a tradition of long standing with the couples involved, who were Mr. and Mrs. Maskell of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Overman of Roseale Park and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Burks of Middle Straits Lake.

On Dec. 29, the Laituras will host a holiday brunch for 15 of their neighbors. On the guest list are Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. George Brundrett, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bechtold, Mr. and Mrs. John Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lory and the Donald Clymers.

Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Laitura enjoyed the fun of opening gifts with their three grandchildren at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Montgen of Garden City.

Robert J. Maund, Lt. (j.g.), who is serving aboard the coast guard cutter Evergreen, is spending the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Maund, of Birmingham road.

Sunday afternoon the Maunds invited their friends and a group of Bob's old buddies in for cocktails. A supper was served at midnight from a table centered with a modernistic Christmas tree.

Some 100 friends enjoyed cocktails Sunday afternoon as guests of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wilson at their home on W. Dartmouth road. Arrangements of white mums were used throughout the house in addition to Christmas decorations.

Beverly Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arter of Hillcrest road recently returned from a month's trip to the west coast and the Hawaiian Islands. Flying to San Francisco, where they spent three days, they took a leisurely trip down the coast visiting Monterey, Carmel, Pebble Beach, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles.

From there they flew to Honolulu. On an island-hopping trip, they visited Maui to see the pine apple and sugar plantations; the Hilo and Kona coast where large coffee plantations are located and the island of Kauai.

They also enjoyed a boat trip to Pearl Harbor and visited the Punch Bowl cemetery where our war heroes are buried.

During their stay in Honolulu they were an Aloha week celebration, similar to the Mardi Gras, and they had the pleasure of attending the King's ball.

The beauty of the tropical flowers in full bloom and the special decorative effects achieved for the event was something beyond description, according to the Artners.

Spending two days in San Francisco before returning home.

A pre-Christmas dinner party was held at the home of the Norman Bodines on Sheridan drive, Thursday evening. Among those attending were Bodine's mother, Mrs. Mamie Bodine, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Norman and the Roy Normans.

Mrs. Edward Crona of Sheridan road entertained her guests for Dec. 17 at a Christmas party. Members of the group are Mes-

BEVERLYS—Thirteen members of girl scout troop 333 of Our Lady Queen of Marys met at the home of Judy Lumble on Reedwood road Tuesday for their Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged, and the girls danced. Leader of the troop is Mrs. William Monahan and co-leader is Mrs. Len Carrier.

Moving Jan. 4

BEVERLYS—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stahl of Auburn drive are moving to Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 4, where Stahl will assume a new position as Sales Manager of the Rochester products division of General Motors.

Roy Vanaman from Lexington, Ill. arrived for Christmas and is planning to spend some time with her daughter.

The Chet Guilglets of Riverside drive had their Annual Christmas breakfast yesterday. Mrs. Guilglet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Hanson of Grayling are spending the holidays with them, and their daughter, Denise, a resident at Marygrove college, is also home for a Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bailey of Locherie road had Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bailey and his grandmother, Mrs. Ella Peters of Okalooska, as well as his brother's family, the Fred Baileys and their daughter, Sharon, of Detroit for dinner yesterday.

Lucretia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Fischer of Kinross drive is home for Christmas vacation from Florida Southern college.

Mrs. H. H. Henselberg of Amherst road entertained her bridge group for their tenth annual Christmas party Friday afternoon. The group includes Medna Reilly Bird, Elmer Bailey, Charles Bradslove, Paul Stocker, John Winttingham, William Lewis and E. L. Pfundstein with Mrs. George Robinson as a guest player.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bull hosted a dinner party Saturday evening at their home on W. Dartmouth road. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mac Gregor of Oak Park, Mr. and Mrs. Kasal Zins of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rogers of Rochester.

Mrs. Norah E. Ead and Miss Elizabeth Graves, of N. Cunbury road, will leave Jan. 2 for a three-month stay at their winter home in Lake Worth, Fla.

A living room, decorated in green and gold, was the setting for a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. David A. Youngblood Saturday night at their home on W. Dartmouth road. Enjoying the festivities was Mrs. Youngblood's sister, Mrs. C. T. Walker, of Augusta, and plans to remain here through January.

Travel Around the World

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Feeley returned to their Cambridge Village home recently after taking a trip around the world. Among the many spots the Feeleys touched down at was Egypt. Shown above are Mr. and Mrs. Feeley taking a turn around an Egyptian tomb which is being excavated by University of Michigan researchers.

School Decorations Form Background

WALNUT LAKE—Christmas decorations at Walnut Lake school formed a background for the festivities Friday, preceding Christmas vacation.

The students were entertained at parties in their respective classrooms after which the teachers gathered for a luncheon, gift exchange and caroling in the art room.

Cranbrook Village Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. John Flaherty of Riverside drive, recently returned from a family dinner for Christmas which included Mr. and Mrs. Bob Flaherty from River Rouge and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wood of Phickney.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Forbush of Hambling road spent Christmas day with Mrs. Forbush's family, Mr. and Mrs. O. King, in Flint. Forbush's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Forbush, were also there.

A new arrival was recently added to the Forbush family. November 23 was the date of birth of Sandra Lee. The Forbushs have another daughter, Debra Lynn, 3 years old.

Mrs. Lewis Gach of Spring River drive, hostess to a bridge and Christmas party last week. The group included Mrs. Robert Vedger, Mrs. Ronald Jenkins, Mrs. Stewart Arft, Mrs. Wm. Sargent, Mrs. Thurman Holloway, Mrs. Bruce Sander and Mrs. Ronald McCarthy.

Trophy Awarded To Mrs. Barrett

LATHRUP—Dr. John L. Barrett of 27821 Bloomfield is a member of a round table group. Last week the group met for dinner and invited their wives to dine with them.

There was an unexpected switch following dinner. Rather than allow the men to speak, each wife was invited to speak for just one minute on her favorite subject.

Mrs. Barrett so charmed her audience with her favorite subject, she was awarded the club's prized trophy, an honor never before bestowed on a woman.

The small trophy is the figure of a young man carrying a coil over his shoulders. Mrs. Barrett will be allowed to keep the trophy for three weeks, or until the next meeting of the group.

Her favorite subject? None other than Dr. Barrett himself.

Two Teenage Boys Get Jail Sentences

SOUTHFIELD—Dave Cunningham, 18, 19170 Melrose, Southfield, and James Smith, 17, 15227 Wixsted, Detroit, each were sentenced to 15 days in jail and placed on six months probation Friday.

The youths were sentenced by Southfield Justice Clarence Reid on charges of being minors in the possession of beer.

They were arrested by Southfield police last Thursday night while sitting in Cunningham's car in a Southfield drive-in. Police said they caught the boys drinking
