Find Body of Man Lying on Street

SOUTHFIELD — The body of a man identified as Alfred Juve, 55, of 21086 Wakenden, Southfield, was found Sunday lying on the street near his home.

Police said there was no evidence of foul play, and the coroner has ruled that Juve died of natural causes, possibly a heart attack.

The body was seen by a passing woman motorist who called police.

Plan Discussion For Feb. Meeting

SOUTH BERKSHIRE — Miniature lights on a pink Christmas tree provided a yuletide atmosphere for the South Berkshires Womens' association board meeting Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. William Harrison, Jr., on Vernon drive.

For the Feb. 3 general meeting, Mrs. Al Light has arranged for a panel discussion consisting of two Birmingham students who studied in Europe and two students from foreign countries who are going to school in Birmingham.

A vote of thanks was extended to the following: Mrs. John Long for her work in making Christmas decorations presented at the December meeting; Mrs. Al Zimanski for offering her home for the occasion; the Alexander Neads who had the youngsters' Christmas party; Mrs. Victor Zaitz for the toy collection and George Williams, Santa's helper.

The January board meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Al Light, 20725 W. Thirteen Mile.
