Head Man Visits Adams Mouseketeers

To Adams school and most other American kids, Jimmy Dodd is one of the world's greatest men. Assembled Adams students were thrilled last week when the "Mickey Mouse Club" master of ceremonies paid them a surprise visit. Dodd ended by leaving the auditorium stage, walking to the piano where the enthusiastic youngsters flocked around, and leading the singing of "The Mouseketeer Song." Everyone knew the words. Clutched in Dodd's hands is his Mouseketeer hat. In a preceding question and answer session, nearly every youngster had a query for the popular TV artist. "Does Cubby really play the drums that well? How old are the Mouseketeers? How were they chosen?" Adams School Principal Frederick Plinis introduced the real piano where the enthusiastic youngsters flocked around, and leading the singing of "The Mouseketeer Song." The children's TV show on which he appears daily is filmed, Dodd told the kids.

Cranbrook Corridor

By LES PERRIN

Last Monday and Tuesday Barant's night, a semi-annual event at Cranbrook, was held. These nights provide an opportunity for parents to meet their sons' teachers.

A reception was held afterward in the south lobby and those students who had parents attending were permitted to attend the reception after evening study hall.

The Cranbrook Music Guild, Inc.,

began its annual concert program series with a concert by the brilliant young French pianist, 22 year old Philippe Entremont. Last Tuesday Ruth Meckler, winner of the 1957 Grinnell piano scholarship award, was presented.

Later presentations will include the Hollywood string quartet, violinist James Barrett and a chamber orchestra of members of the Detroit symphony orchestra.

Southfield has a new librarian. She is Miss Alice Hachigan, a graduate of Eastern Michigan college. She replaces Mrs. Nina Mitchell, who took the position temporarily after the death of Mrs. Edra Weaver.

high school next Thursday, Dec. 12.

Clarence Luchtmann will direct the choir and Wayne Tilton will direct the band in the music department's concert in the school auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

Soloist groups to be featured are the Jills, girls' vocal ensemble, and the Hillsmen, a male trio.

Taking advantage of a discount offered students, 139 from Southfield, saw "Auntie Mame" in November. This month they will have an opportunity to see "No Time for Sergeants."

The Betty Crocker search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow was held Tuesday for the senior girls. The search is given in the form of a test of knowledge and attitude of home and family living.

Southfield Hi - Y representatives will go to Lansing Thursday. They will present a bill proposed by their group to go through the regular legislative procedure. The boys are Darwin Muir, Rod Roy, Bill Goodie and Tom Lambert. Darwin Muir will meet with state highway Commissioner John C. Mackey.
