but absolutely nothing will stop your washdays. You can throw clothespins, lines, bad weather right out the window. No more lines to stretch ... no more baskets of heavy, wet wash to carry. An Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer dries anything you wash just right. Clothes can be fluff-dried, ready to put away or damp-dried, ready for ironing. Wash whenever you please ... dry whenever you please, regardless of weather. Just load it—set it—forget it! Clothes dry wrinkle free ... lint free. The tiny blue flame in a Gas Clothes Dryer is steady and economical, too! Be smart, modern and thrifty. Get an Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer and add beauty and convenience to your home.

Mickey Mouse Club Theme For Birthday Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leavens of Pembroke road entertained playmates and school friends of their 6-year-old son, Mark in celebration of his birthday.

Using the motif of the Mickey Mouse club, Mrs. Leavens served the children luncheon prior to an afternoon of games and prizes.

Guests included Jeff and Mike Monieth, Mark Black, Pat Connelly, Timmy and Bobby Spiegol, Tommy Bert, Scott Calderwood and Mike Almone.

Brownie troop 826 under the direction of Mrs. Ford Banes of Witherbee road celebrated their first birthday last week by presenting "The Brownie Story" in play form at Pembroke school for their mothers.

Prior to the play, Susan Banes, Susan Diesterich, Dee Durkee, Mary Lippard, Wendy Mahan, Sharon Miner and Sherry Smith received their year pins. Joann Glaser qualified for a brownie pin.

The Graefel Home Extension club met recently in the home of Mrs. Joseph Obey of 1151 Floyd road, Birmingham.

Members and guests enjoyed participation in an auction of Christmas items which had been made by the members.

Following the auction, refreshments were served by co-hostesses Mrs. Walter Mitchell and Mrs. L. W. Horton.

A farewell was bid this past week to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bahr, 3748 Graefel, as their 15-month-old daughter, Robin who are moving to 1217 Washington in Birmingham.

Bahr is a lawyer at the Voorhes, Long, Ryan and McNair Co. of Detroit. He studied at Yale university and the University of Michigan law school where he was affiliated with Phi Delta Phi law fraternity. His hobby is acting and he had the lead recently in "Light up the Sky" presented by the St. Dunstan players.

Millionaires Night recently held at Holy Name church and sponsored by the Altar society drew out many Troyton Manor couples.

A few attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. James Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stuffy, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Clougherty (who were the lucky winners of a prize), Mr. and Mrs. John Riccardo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penninger and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman.

The group gathered at the Maurice Riccardo's home for a late evening snack.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hauser, 1621 Graefel, had as houseguests recently Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green from Hobart, Ind. Hauser and Green were in the navy together and University of Illinois classmates.

The couples took in a show in Detroit and did some sightseeing over the weekend but most of all, they enjoyed visiting with each other.

The Troyton Manor group of Michigan State extension service met Nov. 21 at the home of Mrs. Bruce Hayward of Yorkshire road for a Christmas workshop.

Guest leaders, Mrs. Franklin Bens and Mrs. Anson Hedgecock, brought back some clever Christmas mas decorating ideas that the members will duplicate themselves. Mrs. Frank Seeburger showed some decorations that she had made and an exchange of members' own ideas for Christmas took place.

Mrs. Milton Horn gave demonstration of wreath making, swag making and roping for doors and windows, using clippings from her own shrubbery. She followed this with a demonstration of cake making and decorating for that special yule season cake.

Beautiful Christmas cookies and coffee were served to carry out the Christmas theme throughout the evening. Present at the meeting were Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Donald Mosley, Mrs. Almon Durkee, Mrs. Frank Diebold and Mrs. Roger Cleary. Two new members, Mrs. Edward Gabert and Mrs. F. W. Talbot were welcomed into the group. Mrs. L. D. Cornell, a new member to Birmingham was a guest.

Anyone interested in joining the group may call Mrs. Seeburger.

An afternoon of relaxation was spent Wednesday by Mrs. John Honok, Mrs. Ray Blackfield, Mrs. Robert French, Mrs. John Knowles, Mrs. Robert Bahr, Mrs. Charles Goebel and Mrs. Robert Brady at a desert bridge in the Graefel road home of Mrs. Charles Mackley.

Prizes were awarded by Mrs. Mackley to the high scorer.

St. Jane de Chantal's guild held their monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. J. Morrison of Thornwood, vice president.

The group discussed their Christmas charity project and decided that each member would bring food and toys to the Dec. 16 meeting for baskets to be given needy families.

After the meeting tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Judson Decker and co-hostess Mrs. Richard Monley passed cakes to the group. A surprise package, containing Christmas gifts, wrapping paper was won by Mrs. Robert Dyla.

A two-week resident of 1722 Graefel is Miss Marjorie Fidler originally from Kansas.

Miss Fidler is a graduate of the University of Kansas and is a business manager of a sorority with Kappa Alpha Theta affiliation. She is now in market research for the Wolverine Tube Co. in Allen Park, Copper enameling, golf and skiing are Miss Fidler's favorite pastimes.

Motoring from Shaker Heights, Ohio, to spend the Thanksgiving holiday were Mr. and Mrs. J. Cline Distler, 851 Brooklawn.

The highlight of their stay was spending time with their grandchildren Debbie, 3 years old and 2 1/2-month-old Robby whom they hadn't seen since he was 3 weeks old.

Mrs. James Carey of Witherbee road entertained one of the Troyton Manor bridge groups in her home recently.

Seated at the two tables were Mrs. Richard Monley, Mrs. Donald Hibbert, Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr., Mrs. Bessie Barker, Mrs. Robert Distler, Mrs. Leo Case and Mrs. George Hildebrand.
