DR. JOHN H. DAWSON

Birmingham's Oldest Church Marks 136th Year

Methodist worship began in Birmingham in 1821, in Willett's log tavern. The first church in Birmingham was First Methodist, built at the corner of Bates and Merrill in 1839.

Many milestones have been recorded in First Methodist church's history since then, and Sunday the church celebrates its 136th anniversary.

Its guest preacher will be Dr. John H. Dawson, president of Adrian college, and one of the country's youngest college presidents.

DR. DAWSON WAS graduated from the university in 1938 and returned in 1955 to head the affairs of the 111-year-old college.

He will speak on "Line of Splendor" at both 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

A minister as well as an educator, Dr. Dawson has declared his firm conviction that church-related, liberal arts colleges are necessary in the American education system, and is a firm believer that a sound athletic program is of benefit to a college.

The church extends a cordial invitation to all to share in Sunday's observance.

Early copy for church activities makes it better for us and better for you. Don't wait until the deadline, please.
