Where Friendship Lived . . .

The passing from this life means different things to different people. In most every case, a void has opened before us, a place in the scheme of things that is hard to fill.

The funeral service, with its dignity and beauty, can lessen this hardship, and soften the blow of a loved one passing. We of the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home provide the quiet, competent service that helps so much.

Men's Club Sponsored Millionaires' Party

By MARIAN PATRICK

WALNUT LAKE—The Walnut Lake Men's club launched the winter social season Nov. 30 in the organization's club rooms with a Millionaires' party.

Decorated and equipped as a "gambling joint", the party was held in an atmosphere of galloping dice, the whirl of a roulette wheel, the clinking of a chuck-a-luck game and the slap of cards in blackjack.

Guests "gambled" wildly, tossing $100,000 "counterfeit, tainted and phony" banknotes with reckless abandon. As much as $2,000,000 changed hands on one roll of the dice.

HENRY HALL, SHOOTING the works on one turn of the card in blackjack, caused the dismissal of the dealer, Gordon Moakes by Stewart Schultz, president, as "inefficient." Hall won $9,000,000 in one hand.

Kenneth Blesby, club secretary, manned the chuck-a-luck table, Andrew Yevich ran the crap game and Charles Shull operated the roulette wheel.

James Wallace served as host and general factotum and supervised the dispensing of food and coffee. Prices for the foregoing were excellent—hamburgers sold for $300,000 and a cup of coffee set a guest back $100,000.

THE "HOUSEMEN" WERE dressed in the accepted style of croqueters. String ties, sleeve garters and green eyeshades gave each an appearance of Las Vegas habit.

Big winners became big spenders as the Men's club auctioned off prizes and gifts. Mrs. Robert Karnes, Mrs. Robert Morris, Mrs. Andrew Yevich, Mrs. Elliott Oakwood, Mrs. Fred Flatman, Mrs. Jack Flatman and Mrs. Gordon Moakes carried off top prizes, consisting of imperial cufflinks, model automobiles, desk sets, cigarette lighters and costume jewelry.

Proceeds from the party will be used to finance a Christmas party for Walnut Lake youngsters and further support of the cub scout and Walnut Lake Boys' club programs.

Board Denies Hot-Rod Request

SOUTHFIELD—More than 35 township residents appeared before the board of appeals Tuesday night to protest a motorcycle's club petition to use an abandoned garage as a meeting place.

While the residents waited impatiently, the case was delayed for more than half-an-hour in order to give the Banshees of Southeast Oakland county a chance to be heard. When the club failed to send a representative to plead its cause, the board decided to hear the case on the club's petition alone.

THE BANSHEES, who bill themselves as a hot rod and safety club, asked in their petition that they be allowed to use a garage at 19025 Hilton for about an hour once a week to conduct club meetings.

Area residents told the board the garage had been condemned and was "an eyesore which should have been razed long ago."

After hearing the protests, the board denied the club's petition on grounds the building was condemned, it has no plumbing and its use as a club house would create a nuisance.
