Brief But Newsy

Pete Dawkins, Cranbrook executive captain next fall's Army football team. The Royal Oak youth was a standout junior on this year's West Point squad.

A Southfield township couple, Mrs. B. and Mrs. W. Seratch, 30900 Evergreen, are among several persons in Michigan considering establishment of a shooting preserve under the state's new pay-as-you-shoot law. It's still just in the thinking stage and wouldn't be located in this area.

Dave Allen of Bergenfield, N.J., a Birmingham high graduate, has been elected captain of the Grinnell (Iowa) college football team. Allen, a 180-pound blocking back, is a junior.

Bill Watkinson of Birmingham and Southfield's Fred Courville won football monograms at Western Michigan university this fall. Another Birmingham lad, Doug Waggasser, was awarded a cross country letter.

Boxing moves to the suburbs Dec. 14 when two 10-rounders head line a show at the new Light Guard armory on Eight Mile road between Ryan and Mound. One bout will pit Chico Vejar against Pat Lowry while the other pairs DeWitt Duke Harris against Wilf Greaves, Canadian middleweight managed by the widow of Jake Minto. C. W. Smith of Berkley is the promoter.

Stu Clark, Cranbrook's football star, will not play basketball this winter. According to Fred Campbell, Crane athletic director, the former Lincoln prep great wants to concentrate on his studies.

Football Bust Set at Southfield

SOUTHFIELD—A football bust honoring Southfield high school's undefeated, once-led Inter-Lakes conference champions will be held Wednesday night at the school's gymnasium. Time of the event is 7 to 9 p.m.

Lon Agave, Michigan State university line coach, will be the speaker. Neal "Doc" Penkel, Detroit Times publicity director, will be toastmaster.

Goodwins now have four girls and three boys.

Chris Christie, Hobart (Geneva, N. Y.) college junior, was among 22 letterwinners on the Hobart team, the only undefeated college team in the state this fall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Christie, 761 Southfield, and was a regular starter most of the year.
