Bloomfield Hills WNFCA Branch Honored Husbands

Bloomfield Hills branch of Women's National Farm and Garden Association recently had its traditional pot luck supper honoring the husbands at the Bloomfield Hills high school.

The program consisted of a lecture "America the Beautiful" by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hasley, who presented a flashing panorama of America at its peak from the Great Lakes to the Pacific ocean and returned via the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic with natural sound.

In charge of supper arrangements were Mrs. Charles Chubbuck and her committee. Husbands carving the hams and turkeys were Edgar B. Flint, J. Hawley Otis, Leroy G. Vanderveer, W. J. Scripps and Howard Robinson. Mrs. Donald O'Toole and her exhibitions committee were in charge of decorations.

'Tour with Ease'

"Tour with Ease" was the theme of the meeting of the Adams Village Extension group Tuesday. Mrs. Harold Miesel presented ideas on traveling with children. It was also announced that the window display, which the club made on "Family Fun", had won a Class A ribbon.

Delta Zeta Group Adopts Patient

Delta Zeta group met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Cecil N. King of Larchbos. Members turned their attention to Carville hospital for the treatment of Hansen's disease.

The patient the group has adopted will soon be receiving cards and gifts which the group planned. Although this is being started at Christmas time, these morale-building items will continue throughout the year, with attention given to the patients birthday and holidays.

Mrs. Philip W. Lett, Jr., was hostess for yesterday's gathering.

Chapter Installed

Chapter #1, a new unit of Tri-T. Michigan F., was recently installed at the Detroit Yacht club. Mrs. Donald Deputale of Derby road, Birmingham, is president.
