

Wengrens Return From Holiday Trip

WING LAKE FARMS—Few people can match the Walter Wengrens for mileage over the Thanksgiving holiday. They covered 1400 miles on their trip to Smoke Rise, N. J. and New York City.

With their daughter, Diane and son, Wally, and friends, Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Sweet of Walnut Lake and their daughter, Susan, they left Wednesday morning and drove 700 miles to the home of mutual friends, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould, who moved from Walnut Lake to Smoke Rise a year ago. After a gala Thanksgiving day together, they all journeyed to New York Friday where they toured the Queen Mary which was in port, visited Radio City and had dinner at Art's, the restaurant in Greenwich Village, famous for its singing waiters. The children experienced their first ride on a subway were thrilled to travel through the Lincoln tunnel.

Dessert And Bridge

WESTWOOD MANOR—Mrs. Harry Price of Westwood lane entertained a group of neighborhood friends at dessert and bridge Tuesday afternoon.

Police, Residents Chase Stray Cow

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The peace and quiet of a Sunday afternoon in the suburbs was slightly disturbed Sunday when a stray cow led township police and residents on a merry chase through Gilbert Lake, and Foxcroft, up and down Quanton road and back and forth across Telegraph road.

When you don't live on a farm it's really quite a sight to look out the window and see a large brown cow barreling down the road. This one came from a farm on Walnut Lake road and apparently decided it was a nice day for a stroll.

But the owner, the police and local residents didn't go along with this thinking. Here and there along the way more folks joined in the chase as the cow ran down Quanton road, across Telegraph road to Gilbert Lake road then back across Telegraph to Foxcroft where she stopped a while on Meadow Way.

DOORS FLEW OPEN and children ran out and the chase was on again down Woodland Pass to Quanton road where the police managed to nudge her home. She promptly jumped the fence again but this time she was rounded up in a hurry and safely stowed in the barn.
