

Bloomfield West Social Briefs

William Rice, a sophomore at Purdue, spent Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Rice of E. Dartmouth road.

Mrs. Richard Masard of Lone Pine heights, and Mrs. Elmer Reinhardt of Detroit, were honored guests at a dinner and dance on Nov. 22, celebrating their birthdays. Others in the party beside the honored guests and their husbands, were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Monteith, of Birmingham.

Jeffery Campbell invited 12 of his classmates at Holy Name school to his home on Hiddenbrook lane on Nov. 29, to help him celebrate his ninth birthday.

The boys enjoyed supper, followed by an evening of movies. Jeffery is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Campbell.

A little newcomer to the Brass is Jan Ericka Pittard, who was born on Nov. 22. To greet her when she arrived home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Pittard of Old Orchard drive, were Penny, Chip, Lee and her grandmother who came up from her home in Atlanta, Ga. to "lend a hand."

Lok Chua, a DePauw university sophomore, was a Thanksgiving weekend guest of the J. B. Roberts family at their home on Lakeshire road. Lok, whose home is in Singapore, is majoring in English and hopes to enter the field of journalism.

Kathryn Lucille Mills, an aspirant in the Dominican order at St. Catherine's convent, Racine, Wis., spent the Thanksgiving week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Mills, an Eastmoor road.

Mr. and Mrs. Klaus Johnson of Norwood, Mass., spent Thanksgiving week with their son, Vincent Johnson and family, 6785 Halyard. The grandparents, now in their 80's, enjoyed visiting with their six grandchildren. Paul, the oldest, is 14. Patty is 9. Then there are 5-year-old triplets, Judy, Peter and Bobby, and last little David, 10 months.

A most welcome guest at the Edward C. Trycinski home on Mohawk court, was Mrs. Trycinski's sister, Mrs. Patrick J. Martin, of Rome, Italy. Mrs. Martin left Friday to return to her four children and husband, Lt. Col. Patrick J. Martin who is with the US Embassy in Rome.
