and lasted until noon to give delegates this freedom for the rest of the day. They spent one weekend on the island of Hawaii and witnessed a most unusual event. A man in their group caught the largest marlin in the history of the waters of Kona. The fish was 13 feet, 9 inches long, 76 inches in diameter and weighed 911 pounds. He also set a record in the time it took him to land the fish since he did it in 55 minutes. The next largest marlin to be caught weighed 760 pounds. Enroute home they spent one night in Los Angeles and one in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Baldez of Williamsbury, enjoyed having their son, Jon, home for Thanksgiving from Georgetown university in Washington, D.C. where he is a freshman and their daughter, Mary, who is a senior at St. Mary's of Notre Dame.

The William J. Spittitoessers of Glenary circle had Thanksgiving dinner for their son, Willard, his wife and four children and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tanke, both of Rosedale Park. Spittitoesser had just returned from a hunting trip to his private hunting club at Pine Valley near Hubbard lake, where he brought down his deer for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Rightor and children moved in October from their home at 1030 Covington to 1500 W. Long Lake road.

Their son, Jim, is a senior at Purdue and daughter, Judy, a freshman at the University of Colorado.

Young son, Mike, is at Vaughn school and daughter, Mary, a student at Bloomfield Hills high school. A recent weekend in Pinhurst, N. C. was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Campbell of Roland drive with their son, Richard and daughter, Mrs. Richard Strickland of Washington to the home of Strickland's mother, Mrs. S. S. Strickland.

While there, they celebrated Mrs. Richard Strickland's birthday with dinner at the Dunes club.

Mr. Robert Fife of Yarmouth, together with her sister, Mrs. Joan White gave a Tuesday luncheon at the Orchard lake home of Mrs. Fife's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Nelson of Morningview Terrace entertained their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Swanson and son, Richard, of Lansing for Thanksgiving weekend.

Coming to spend Christmas and New Year with them will be her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beckstrom of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Of the group with whom Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Boileau of Hamilton went hunting, Mrs. Boileau was the only one who got a deer. She has a way with those deer as she has bagged seven in the ten years she has been hunting. She says her trick is to just sit on a pillow and munch on candy bars and the deer just come.

Also with the group was Allen Crady of Birmingham.

At Thanksgiving dinner the Boileaus entertained Mr. and Mrs.

Recognition Night Feb. 6 for B'ham City Employees

Second bi-ennial Birmingham city employees' recognition night will be Feb. 6, Asst. City Manager Robert Kenning said Monday. About 400 employees, their wives and husbands, are expected at the dinner. Kenning said the Ford tractor and implement division has loaned its dining room to the city for the event, which will see employees cited for their length of city service. Police Sgt. Brown also will be presented with the city's first medal of valor, won in a run duel several months ago with an ex-convict, who was killed.

Fred Hamill and their son Dave of Birmingham.

A delightful trip to Grand Forks, N. Dak. for the Thanksgiving weekend was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Wilder and daughter, Suzie.

They visited his mother, Mrs. George H. Wilder, his sister's family and Mrs. Wilder's sister's family all of Grand Forks who joined them for a Thanksgiving feast.

Couple Married In Minneapolis

Yvonne D. Lehman of Detroit became the bride of John Whitney Colenso Nov. 27 at the Baptist church in Minneapolis. Whitney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Colenso, 1471 Bonnaville. The couple will make their home in Minneapolis where they were recently transferred by the Greyhound Co.
