

Farmyard Decor For Dance, Auction At Baldwin School

Baldwin PTA's first square dance and country auction, to be held tomorrow night in the school gymnasium, will have authentic farmyard decor, complete with a corral full of animals. Personnel of the menagerie is still unsettled, although it will run to the smaller types of barnyard fauna.

The decoration committee, under Bruce C. Unwin, has been busy this week with hay rick and silo, as well as a fence and chicken wire to keep the livestock enclosed. The auction part of the program will be under the direction of PTA president Richard Stevens. Every couple will bring an article to be auctioned, and auctioneer Stevens will try to get the bids high enough to pay for the dance.

Mrs. Robert Mooney heads the refreshments committee. Don Parry will call the dance figures, and give a short instruction course to those new to the art. The orchestra, all PTA members, consists of Merritt Olen, Charles Jones, Arthur Lougee and Les Schaefer.

Village Players To Dine, Dance Saturday Night

Howard C. McDonald of Bloomfield Hills is taking time off this week to supervise the complicated problem of erecting decorations for Village Players' formal dinner and dance at the Playhouse Saturday night at 8:30 p.m.

When McDonald finishes there will revolve above the diners and dancers a unique ceiling center-piece with long, branching arms delicately balanced by gigantic ornaments. With proper lighting, promised by McDonald and Gordon F. Jaynes, co-chairmen of the dinner with their wives, the fixture will create moving, multiple, magnified shadows of itself.

According to Mrs. Ralph Skinner, Jr., social chairman arranging for dinner to be served by Rotunda Inn at 8:30, the menu will consist of fried chicken, baked ham, tails in the home of Mr. and Mrs. field Hills is taking time off this week to supervise the complicated problem of erecting decorations for Village Players' formal dinner and dance at the Playhouse Saturday night at 8:30 p.m.
