

Poppleton Plans Founder's Program

A founders Day program is being planned and all past presidents are being sent special invitations to the meeting of the Poppleton PTA at 8 o'clock this evening, in the all-purpose room. Theme for the program is based on "This is Your Life" and the person involved has been kept a secret. Refreshments will be served by the second grade mothers.

Musical Selections Highlight Meeting

Patty Wyatt of 231 Glenhurst was hostess to the Merry Music Makers Sunday afternoon. Program included piano selections by Nancy Wilson, Bruce Brown, Julie Bennett, Marilyn Mitchell, Claudia Kesler and Bonnie Sue Renshaw. Mary Hawkins and Fred Post played a violin duet. A string trio composed of Paul Engard on the cello and violinists Randy Randall and Kay Tibbets, also performed.

Health Professor Is Nurses' Speaker

Miss Kathryn Robeson, professor of Public Health Nursing in Ann Arbor, will be guest speaker for the February meeting of the Oakland County District of the Michigan State Nurses association at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, at the Birmingham Community House. The theme "Our Common Goals" will be presented by the Continuing Patient Care committee of Oakland County.
