Charles Palmer, Pembroke
Principal Moves into Area

Proximity to home is enjoyed by Charles Palmer, principal of Pembroke elementary school who recently moved his family into their new home at 1663 Derby road.

Mr. Palmer, and Mrs. Palmer, instructor at Vaughan school in Bloomfield Hills, have made education their life work. Mr. Palmer received his bachelor's degree from Toledo University and his master's degree from the University of Southern California. He is a member of the honorary education fraternity Phi Delta Kappa.

Mr. Palmer's educational background was divided between Toledo University, Whittier College in Whittier, Calif., and Los Angeles State college, finally receiving her degree from Wayne University.

The Palmers have two children, Margo, 11 and Erik, 7, both attending Pembroke school.

When time permits Pembroke's principal enjoys taking his children hunting and fishing while Mrs. Palmer catches up on her favorite pastimes of reading and sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes of Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor announce the arrival of their third child, Jane Adeline, born Jan. 11, at Harper hospital, Detroit. The baby weighed 11 lbs. 8 oz. and due to her weight is still at Harper. However, the Barnes expect to have her home within the next week where she will be greeted by her sister Martha, 1 1/2, and brother, Webb, 2 1/2.

Graefield terraces welcome newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Mungus and 4-month-old daughter, Linda Louise, at 1708 Graefield road. They moved here from Pensacola, Fla.

Mr. Mungus is a graduate of Iowa State university where he majored in journalism and engineering. He is affiliated with Delta Upsilon fraternity. He is now associated with the Square D Co., Detroit. Besides being sports enthusiasts both enjoy music and an evening of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McDonough had farewell to their friends at Graefield terraces. Mr. McDonough, employed with Johnson and Johnson, was transferred to Cleveland, Ohio. They formerly resided at 545 Eton road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Robert Dyla, formerly of Detroit, are now residing at Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor.
