

Three Families Move to Beverly

Newcomers to the area are Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Mathews on Kinross, formerly of Royal Oak. Mr. Mathews is connected with W. L. Gale, Inc. They have four daughters, Mary Anne, 8, twins Judith and Janet, 7, and Gale, 3. Mrs. Mathews' hobby is ceramics while Mr. Mathews favors golf and the family enjoys outdoor sports.

The Charles Mitchell family moved from Ferndale to Kirkshire. Their children are Linda, 11, Charles, 10, Judy, 8, Tommy, 4, and Jacqueline, 2. Mr. Mitchell is employed with Deluxe Tool and Die Corp. Church activities, outdoor sports are the family's interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bigsby and their children Tommy, 10, Terry Sue, 8, and Gregg, 7, are newcomers on Devonshire. Formerly Berkeley residents, Mrs. Bigsby is affiliated with the Birmingham alumni group of Tri Delta and has been active in Cub and Brownie scouts. Mr. Bigsby is employed by the process division of General Motors.

E. Beverly NWFG Distributes Blue Denim Litter Bags

BEVERLY—In connection with the national program to "Keep America Beautiful," the East Beverly National Farm and Garden Club distributed blue denim litter bags to sell to children, at cost, for use in automobiles. Harold F. Peck, PTA president, handled sales at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school, and Mrs. James Stewart of Kinross, Civic Improvement chairman, handled sales at the Beverly school with assistance of Mr. Ken Taylor, Mrs. Frank Sutherland and Mrs. Norman Boudine.

A committee meeting of 11 local branches of the National Farm and Garden Club was held recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph W. Shanon in Warwick. The group discussed the combined meeting to be held in April, at which time there will be a speaker to discuss the International Exchange student program.

Valley Woods Social Briefs

Luncheon was served last Thursday afternoon to 88 guests and members of the Valley Woods Women's association at a combined meeting.

Mrs. Charles Deuel, program chairman, had scheduled a display of Spring hats. Table decorations on a Valentine theme were the work of Mrs. Wilson McQuinn and committee.

A new tribe of YMCA Indian Guides has been formed in the area. The first combined father and son meeting took place last Tuesday evening at the home of Robert Wertman and son Bill.

Other little and big Indians are Charles and Ken Harrison, Ken and Kenny Kittle, Otto and Mike Lill, Len and Jeff Nelson and Russell and Rusty Schaf.

The Fox tribe meets every other Thursday at alternate homes. The Schaafs, Big Bear and Little Bear will be hosts Feb. 21, at 7:30 p.m.

A repeat sale of poems for the Women's association is being undertaken by Mrs. Elmer Weiss of Corsaut lane. Those wishing to place an order, may contact either Mrs. Weiss or a board member.

The Robert Fishers of Eastlady Rd. welcomed the Ralph Fishers of Cleveland, Ohio for a week's visit. The senior Fishers made this the first stop before an extended Caribbean cruise.

Ken Kittle, Jr. celebrated his seventh birthday with a family dinner party at his favorite restaurant. Ken treated his first grade school pals and teacher, to ice cream and birthday cake during afternoon school.

Jane Nicholson of Bellvine trail is looking forward to her 15th birthday present next month, tickets to "My Fair Lady." The fashions and gifts.

illy celebrated, for the present, with Bobbie Robertson of Forest lane.

Beverly Artesian Association Names Dance Committees.

Scout Troop 409 Sees Demonstration

BEVERLY—Girl scout troop 409 under the leadership of Mrs. J. L. Harding assisted by Mrs. Otto McKee, have been working on the good-grooming badge.

Meeting at the home of member Virginia Larges, on Drury lane, the girls watched Teresa Schimer of Teresa's Colony House, demonstrate and talk about hair styling. In appreciation of her time and help, the girls presented Miss Schimer

The Beverlys

WEST BEVERLY · EAST BEVERLY

THE REV. LEO TOTTE, Rev. Lucian Hebert and Sister Mary Helen at the entrance of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school, receive 18 flags presented the school by scout troop B-29. Scoutmaster Bill Brooks stands at the right by the troop flag.

Scout Troop B-29 Presents 18 Flags to Our Lady School

EAST BEVERLY—Following church services at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, Sunday, Scout troop B-29 and its leaders presented 18 flags to Sister Mary Helen, Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school principal.

The flags, purchased by the troop from the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, will be placed in the school rooms in appreciation of parish sponsorship of the troop. The Rev. Lucian Hebert, pastor, at the presentation ceremony, thanked Scoutmaster Bill Brooks and the scouts.

IN THE AFTERNOON, scouts and leaders assembled at the University of Detroit Memorial building to take part in the Archdiocesan cent assembly in connection with Scout Week.

B-29 Scouts' receiving the church's Ad Altare Dei award at the assembly were Mike Schick, Marty Reddy, Bill Sifferman, John Mahr, John Burke and Tom Frederick.

Last night the troop held Court of Honor in the activities room of the school. The troop honored its third Star scout, Mike Schuck. Other presentations were six First Class awards, three Second Class awards and 10 merit badges.

A REPORT of the Christmas wreath sale was given by troop treasurer, James Kelly, who said the troop had sold more than 1200 wreaths, netting $600 for the troop treasury, after all awards were accounted for.

Fifteen scouts won two weeks at Camp Howell next summer and six more scouts won one week at the Reservation. In addition, many scouts won credits which they will not touch the cost of going to camp.

Sunday afternoon, the entire troop, scout leaders and committees will go by bus to watch the Detroit Red Wings-Boston Bruins hockey game. The Rev. Leo Totte, troop chaplain will be their guest.

In the past 10 years, Russia has risen from seventh to second place as a world naval power, according to NATO experts.

AILEEN STOCKER
MIDWEST 4-1038

Beverly Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Depman of Buckingham have returned from separate trips. While Mr. Depman spent two weeks in Colorado Springs on business, Mrs. Depman spent a week in Chicago visiting friends.

The Russell Marneys of Dunblaine entertained at a venison dinner Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sexton, Mrs. Peter Mortenson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stocker and Waldo Larson, a former East Beverly resident.

On the second Sunday of each month, eight East Beverly couples get together for bowling and later meet at one of the homes for post-game refreshments.

Last Sunday they gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Montgomery of Birchwood. Others in the group include the Thomas Devines, the Thomas Raleighs, the Charles and the Jane Magoes, the Bob McCarthys, the Edward Fintaks and the Cliff Newmans.

Mrs. Henry Stahl of Beverly road, is secretary of the Detroit Home Economists. She will attend a meeting of the organization tonight at Wayne State University.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Malloire of Beverly road spent three days in Chicago where Mr. Malloire attended a convention of the American road builders association. One evening found the Malloires dining in the Empire room of the Palmer House where they heard Nelson Eddy sing.

The M. A. Beukemas of Devonshire have returned from Florida where they visited former West Beverly residents, the Robert Elmers at Delray, and a nephew at Orlando and then spent some time at Vero Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hermann of Amherst have returned from a vacation in Pompano, Fla. and Havana, Cuba, where they toured the island. Their daughter, Shelly, 15 months, remained at home with her grandmother.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Mentag of Lauderdale have returned from Chicago where they attended the dental convention for a week.

Fred Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey of Lochebie entertained 16 sixth grade boys and girls at a Valentine party Friday evening. After playing games and dancing, refreshments were served.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Peter S. Gordon of Devonshire announce the birth of a son, Robert, on Feb. 3 at Harper hospital. Robert weighed in at 7 lbs. 10 oz. The couple have another son, Tom, 2 years old.

BE SURE TO VOTE IN THE PRIMARY
FEB. 18, 1957

HAROLD HEPER

for "JUSTICE OF THE PEACE" BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP

Veteran Lawyer - Graduate of University of Michigan B.A. — 1929, J.D. — 1931

— HAVE A TABLE FULL OF FASHION —

STERLING SILVER FLATWEAR

NATIONALLY
ADVERTISED
BRANDS

25%
OFF
the list price

NOT IN STOCK—
PLEASE ALLOW
7 TO 10 DAYS
FOR DELIVERY

NORTHWOOD JEWELRY CENTER

2602 N. Woodward at 12 1/2 Mile • L1 9-1885

It's Stokely Week at WRIGLEYS

Prices effective through Saturday, Feb. 16. We reserve the right to limit quantities. No sales to dealers or minors.

Stokely's Finest Yellow Cling Peaches: Halves Sliced	5	303 Cans	$1.00
Stokely's Finest Golden Whole Kernel Corn	7	303 Cans	$1.00
Stokely's Finest Tomato Catsup	6	14-Oz. Bottles	$1.00
Stokely's Finest Tomato Juice	4	46-Oz. Cans	$1.00
Stokely's Finest Honey Pod Peas	6	303 Cans	$1.00
Stokely's Finest Fruit Cocktail	3	No. 2 1/2 Cans	$1.00
Stokely's Finest Applesauce	6	303 Cans	$1.00

WRIGLEYS

Stewing Chickens

Completely Cleaned
3 1/2 Lbs. and Up
Average Weight

29¢ lb.

Fancy
Indian River
MARSH — SEEDLESS

Grapefruit

White or Pink
5 80-Size for 29¢

McO-Spread
Margarine
4 1-Lb. Cans in Qtz. 89¢

Dole Fresh Frozen
Pineapple
JUICE
6-Oz. Can Makes 2 1/2 Ozs. of Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice 10¢

WRIGLEYS

GEL. FINER GIFTS EASIER WITH GOLD BELL GIFT STAMPS

855 So. Hunter and 1855 So. Woodward