

Sheill-Graves Wedding Performed in Franklin

Franklin Community church was the scene of the Saturday evening marriage of Dreana Graves and Donn LeRoy Sheill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sheill of Northwester highway, Southfield township.

The bride, who made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Jewett of Southfield township, was groomed in white silk organza for her wedding day. Styled in princess lines, with long sleeves and chapel train, the gown was accented by sequins and swirled pearls at the mandarin neckline.

HER VEIL, cascaded from a jeweled crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid corsage.

An action of honor for her sister, Mrs. Frederick Oak of Detroit, wore a yellow lace dress and a tiara of yellow net. Her flowers were carnations tinted a light orchid shade to match the gown of the bride. Mrs. Jack Ellison, maid of honor, wore a white gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

William Hitchcock of Hazel Park was best man. Ushers were the groom's brother, William, Frederick Oak and David Smith of Detroit.

After a reception in the church hall, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Chicago. They will make their home at 2826 Northwester highway.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

25th Anniversary Marked at Party

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Peters of Broadwood avenue celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house party planned by their daughter, Marilyn, a junior student at Eastern Michigan college.

Decorations for the event included a bouquet of 25 red roses on the piano.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Emory D. Jones, the L. H. Clingers, the D. H. Wardens, the J. P. Clearys, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Saanen, the Paul Swans, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Evans, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Oble, Karl Parson and the Emory Osgoods.

Mundt Piano Pupils To Present Recital

The fourth in a series of piano recitals by pupils of Elmer Mundt will be presented Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Baldwin library.

Taking part will be Virginia Pade, Patricia Elmes, Karen Gilroy, Jean Greene, Noel Heinze, Roland Kaplan, Lois Saylor, Robert Schirmer, Herbert Stodolins, Sheila Stone, James Tanabe and David Fisher.

Resort Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder of Oak street were recent visitors to the Shadow Mountain club, Palm Desert, Calif.

DON'T MISS

EGGLESTON'S

Annual SPRING YARD GOODS SALE

Thurs., Fri., Sat.,
Feb. 21-23

EGGLESTON'S

DEPARTMENT STORE

Woodward just North of Maple—Birmingham

A GAY NINETIES PIANO PLAYER is being featured for two more weeks, Feb. 22 and March 1, in the Rathskeller room of Forest Lake County club. Members and their guests are seated at tables covered with red-checked cloths, glowing with candles with the crackling of logs burning in the fireplace beginning at the dinner hour, 6:30 p.m. Others will gather around the piano for old time melodies in between munching on popcorn and pretzels. Among last week's party goers were from left) Charles W. Snehner and Richard H. Young, both of Bloomfield, Milton Fields, Virgil Boyd and Alfred R. Waters, all of Birmingham.

Kappas Will Meet At Mrs. Ringland's

North Woodward alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma will have its monthly luncheon meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Milton Ringland, 1804 Bangalore, Lathrop Village.

Each member will bring something she has made, for a "Do It Yourself Auction."

Have You Met . . .

The new residents on Stanley boulevard? Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hammill moved here from Flint in January. Mr. Hammill, who is Detroit, was employed for 32 years by General Motors Parts Corp. The Hammills have two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Thoms of Birmingham and Mrs. S. A. Griffin of St. Louis. Mr. Hammill is a member of Flint lodge F. & A. M. B'nai B'rith Consistory and Sagesaw Shrine.

Discuss Secrets Of Handwriting

"Secrets your Handwriting Reveals" was the theme discussed by the members of the Handwriting Analysis Study Group who met at the home of Mrs. George Gaudin, 854 Briar street, Birmingham.

Following luncheon a talk was given by Mrs. Margo Alton, on "What Handwriting Analysis Can Do For You."

Have You Met . . .

The new residents on Honnetta? Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dickel moved to Birmingham recently from Oak Park with their children, David, 7, and Maurice, 10 months. Mr. Dickel is sales manager for Cargill, Detroit Corp., Birmingham. His wife is the former Dr. Dorothy Guerner, a pediatrician. He belongs to the University club and Psi Upsilon fraternity, and she is a member of Mt. Holyoke club of Detroit. Their hobbies are golf and do-it-yourself projects.

California has more federal employees than any other state, while Vermont has the least, according to the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Club Calendar

FEBRUARY 22
Berkley's Funnage sale, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., 1006 1/2, 1471 North main street, Clawson.

FEBRUARY 24
Bloomfield Hills City and Country School, openhouse for parents and children, 2 to 5 p.m., sponsored by the PTA, Mrs. George Eves of general chairman.

FEBRUARY 25
Planned Parenthood board dinner meeting, evening, Fox and Hamms.

FEBRUARY 26
Detroit chapter of American Society of Management Associates, dinner, 6 p.m., followed by talk on "Tax Planning" Women's club, Detroit.

FEBRUARY 27
Palate and Broch club monthly meeting at Westlawn Methodist church, Detroit, at noon. Luncheon, 1 job, steaker, 2 p.m. Wayne State university faculty member and member, Robert J. Wilcox, will give on "New Direction in Painting" and will criticize paintings of members.

FEBRUARY 28
Philomena club, 1 p.m. dessert lunch men's club, and sewing at the home of Mrs. Huxley P. Peters, 859 Watkins, Birmingham.

Here from N.Y. For House Party

David M. Nellis of Pittsford, N. Y., now in Birmingham last week end to attend a party with Helen Collins at the home of Lynn Anderson, who plans to move to New York in the summer.

Basia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McNellis, formerly of Birmingham boulevard, and Helen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Collins, Mrs. Marylate, Birmingham, are both high school seniors.

Former school classmates, David returned to New York after spending the weekend at the home of Helen's parents.

Student Named To Press Board

NORTHAMPTON, Mass.—Miss Patricia Ann Hammel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammel, 2455 Devon lane, a junior at Smith college, recently was elected by her class to Electoral board, a body of representative students who supervise the elections for the major student government offices.

The Village Store

205 Pierce St., Birmingham, Mich.
88 Ketchikan, Grand Pt. Farms, Mich.

SALE

LODENCLOATS

imported from Bavaria

ALL 1/3 OFF

Warm waterproof lodencloth coats in a variety of colors and styles—both short and long. Sizes 8-16. Limited supply. Those who want goods must come quick.

Cott-Shuptrine's

FINAL CLEARANCE

FEBRUARY ANNIVERSARY

FURNITURE

SALE

for those who can appreciate a true Sale Value. Since we seldom have a SALE, we have endeavored to offer every item in the Store at substantial savings. Fair-Traded items excepted.

SAVE

time—time is one of the most precious ingredients of daily living. SAVE the bother of looking elsewhere for best values—they're at any one of the four COTT-SHUPTRINE stores.

BIRMINGHAM—1185 S. ADAMS AT WOODWARD
OPEN MONDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY EVENINGS 'TIL 9
Payment Arrangements to Fit Your Budget—All Sales Final

ADVERTISEMENT

BARBERS

Yellow Pages
Classified Telephone Directory

The Village Store

205 Pierce St., Birmingham, Mich.
88 Ketchikan, Grand Pt. Farms, Mich.

They go to your head

Our demi-hats blooming in a garden of flowers and spring's fruits . . . Violets and mimosa mingle with cherries and wild strawberries and are caught by wisps of veiling and other stuffs, making of you a woodland sprite all impatient for spring.

Fluffy rose on faille band . . . 9.95	Tiny bunched violets with mossy velvet . . . 3.95	Daisy band with pop-up daisy . . . 3.95	Wild strawberries and leaves . . . 1.95
			Cherries in a cluster on pique band . . . 5.95