

Philosophers of every age are agreed: man has that the happiest people, most secure in mind, are those who minimize the value and worth of material possessions. This is not to say that a modest acquisition of this world's goods is not desirable. But the thought does stem from a statement that "Ye cannot worship both God and mammon."

Mahrle-Finke Rites Solemnized Saturday

Airman I/C and Mrs. Kenneth Dale Mahrle are on a wedding trip to the west coast, where they will make their home as Moses Lake, Wash., near Larson Air Force base.

They were united in marriage late Saturday afternoon in St. James Episcopal church, Dr. Harold E. Towne performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the former Lynne Finke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finke of Inkster road, Bloomfield township. Her husband's parents are the Walter A. Mahrles of 1540 Humphrey, Birmingham.

Lynne's white bridal gown of imported chantilly type lace was designed with a tulle cowl neckline extending to form a back bow and streamers. The bouffant ballerina-length skirt featured a scalloped lace and nylon tulle hemline.

Her elbow length veil cascaded from a lace bunnet embroidered in iridescent sequins and seed pearls. A colonial bouquet of white roses and ivy completed her ensemble.

BARBARA Wrobel of Franklin served as honor maid. Her seafoam colored antique tulle dress was accented by a back bow and streamers and cummerbund in dark peacock shade. A headband in peacock blue held her short veil, and she carried a colonial arrangement of peach colored roses out back lined with dark burnt orange tulle.

New Folding Stage Designed For Puppets

A new folding stage for both marionette and fist puppets has been designed and just completed by Robert Charles VonMaur, 243 Hamilton road, Bloomfield Village. Mr. VonMaur is the husband of one of the Birmingham Puppeteer members.

The stage is built of conduit pipe and is easily portable. The puppeteers have long been hoping for such a practical answer to the problem of transporting and setting up all of the equipment needed to produce a show. It is easy to assemble and take apart, and can easily be duplicated by group leaders who wish to make puppetry a part of their program.

The new stage will be used for the first time at the Puppet Workshop, Friday, Feb. 22, from 1 to 5 p.m. in the ranch room of the Community House, when leaders working with children will learn about puppets children can make.

Mrs. VonMaur is directing a play "The Curious Child and the Crocodile" and known from Holy Name troop 779 will be working the marionettes. The brownies are Susan King, Bonnie Birger and Ann Marie Stueheli and they will give their performance after school. The Birmingham Puppeteers, a study group of the AAUW, invite about puppet children can make.
