

MRS. ROBERT W. NASH

Nash-Georgi Vows Exchanged Saturday

Donna Mina Georgi and Robert W. Nash exchanged wedding vows Saturday at 7 o'clock in the Peace Lutheran church. A reception at the Whittier hotel followed the rites read by Reverend Eino Claus.

The bride chose a crown of white tulle and a gown of white tulle with a white silk tulle skirt. The ballerina-length skirt was accented with a white silk tulle sash fastened into a bow at the back. Her cap of embroidered lace held the silk illusion veil.

She carried a combination of white orchids and white roses. Mrs. Robert Farrell of Beverly Mass, the bride's sister, was her only attendant.

ROBERT Kennick was best man.

Adolf Samra and Orland Wysocki acted as the groom's best men. Mrs. Georgi chose a navy new dress and a flowered blue hat for her daughter's wedding. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Nash, 30409 Vernon Southfield township, Farmington Hills, Mich.

Bloomfield Village Village Residents Travel To Popular Winter Resort

If one travels to Otsego these days, he would feel right at home, being surrounded by so many familiar faces. Families by the score from this area are to be found at the popular resort.

Among those who have enjoyed the winter sports, those recently are the Jans, George, H. of Ann Arbor, Mich. and Mrs. John Hay of Ann Arbor, Mich. and Mrs. Richard C. Allmand of Ann Arbor and Mrs. J. D. Richardson Jr. of Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan E. Hill of Morning View Terrace recently entertained a large number of friends at a cocktail party in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Miller of Gilescary road are spending the winter in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. where they plan to remain until early spring.

New to the village and Overhill road (the avenue of physicians) are Dr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Hasbani and family, Nancy, Susan, Raymond, and Deborah.

Mr. Jasper Reid of North Glen garry road entertained a group of friends and neighbors honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gardner C. Vase of Glen garry road who were traveling to Otsego.

The monthly meeting of the Bloomfield Village Club was held in the home of Mrs. Franklin Gaid in her new home on Williamburg road. Toys for blind children were donated by the members at the meeting.
