BACK FROM THREE glorious weeks on the west coast are Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mathews (right) and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Long, both of Oakland drive. It was the Automobile Convention that lured them west to San Francisco. In San Francisco they stayed at the St. Francis hotel. When they weren't at the convention their spare time was spent seeing the sights... such places as the Sacred Heart Convent, the Chinese Forbidden City and Fisherman's Wharf. From there they went to Los Angeles where they visited the Farmers Market, TV shows, "This Is Your Life" and "Truth and Consequences." Elvis Presley and spent a day visiting Disneyland. Before coming home they stopped in Las Vegas at the Desert Inn. While they were there they took a day off from the one-armed bandits to take a drive up to Hoover Dam. Among the shows they saw on the strip were Patti Page, Xavier Cugat and June Haver. The four travelers returned home last Friday.

Mrs. Watt Swings Into Campaign

By this weekend, Mrs. Ethel Jecelyn Watt, 1215 Yorkshire, Birmingham, will have spoken in 10 lower peninsula cities, including Bad Axe in the thumb area, in the fortnight following her nomination as Republican candidate for University of Michigan regent.

After meeting Republican legislators in Lansing yesterday, she went on to Saginaw to speak to the University of Michigan Alumni group there. She is a past director for life of the U of M Alumni Association.

Friday Mrs. Watt, who is vice-president of Piety Hill chapter, DAR, will attend a meeting of Psi Chi at DARA. She will be in Bar Abbe Saturday. Last Monday Mrs. Watt was honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. Frank Chapman in Rochester. Afterward she addressed the Rochester Republican club.

MRS. WATT'S first official appearance as a candidate was at Lincoln Day festivities last week. She spoke at a Lincoln dinner of Republicans at Northwood Inn last Monday.

Thursday she spoke at Ann Arbor's Lincoln Day dinner which was followed by an open house.

Kingswood Plans 'Co-ed' Program Repeat in Summer

Plans have been completed to hold another session of summer school for boys and girls who have finished the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades by this coming June. The curriculum will include eight non-credit courses "designed to offer stimulating ideas and valuable skills to students at these grade levels."

Miss Grace Fry, assistant headmistress at Kingswood, and director of the summer session, says, "School will run for six weeks, with classes every morning from 9 until noon, and students may be one or two of the courses offered."

As the summer program now stands, the following courses will be available: chemistry, conversational French or Spanish, creative writing, international problems, developmental reading, pre-college composition, and typing.

Further information may be obtained by calling the school.

No Depression Due, Dow Exec. to Tell Supper Club Here

Our present high level of economy is not in jeopardy, Eugene E. Perrin, Dow Chemical company executive, will tell members of the First Presbyterian church Supper club Tuesday night.

Speaking at the 7 p.m. event at the church, Perrin will suggest that new developments in the chemical and related industries can help maintain our present economy. Many of the developments, he suggests, have global, social, economic and political implications.

Perrin, a native of Norville, Mich., joined Dow in 1942. After varied assignments in sales, advertising and public relations, he was named an assistant in the company's executive department in January.
