Bloomfield Farms Residents Hold Dance on Friday

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — Friday evening residents of Bloomfield Farms will be assembled for their first dance, one of the series of events being planned by an active social committee.

West Bloomfield township hall on Orchard Lake road will be the scene of the get-together, and there will be both ballroom and square dancing, with a caller on hand to guide the square dancing couples.

Cards are being provided for those present who prefer bridge, pool and canasta to dancing. A buffet supper will be served at midnight.

"Judging from the advance sale of tickets there should be a large turnout," says Mrs. George Brunst, diect, chairman.

Stewart Underhills Return From Curlers Competition

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — The Stewart Underhills of North Clunbury road are home from Switzerland, where they journeyed with the 16 American curlers on a 16-day, seven-city, competitive tour.

Undhill was a member of the Detroit Curling Club team which participated. They flew over on the maiden eastbound voyage of the new Swiss-Aire ship, and stayed in the beautiful resort hotels at Getzfeld, Grindewald, Wengen, Villars, Zermatt and St. Moritz.

Each town welcomed them with banners and parties, and serenaded them with accordions and yodeling as they left.

Berkshires Social Briefs

Former Detroit neighbors helped Mr. and Mrs. James Botwick celebrate the first anniversary in their home on Old Mill road. Twenty-eight friends attending the party made a affair seem like a reunion to the Botwicks.

A buffet supper was served late in the evening, with the table centerpiece a large valentine heart made by one of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Smith of East Greenwich, Pa., are the parents of a daughter, Michelle Ann, who arrived Feb. 11, weighing 8 lbs. The Smiths have another daughter, Cheryl Denise.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Donovan of 4441 Westchester Village last fall. They formerly lived in Pittsburgh and also in Kansas City. They have a son, Frank Rene, attending Franklin Village school.

Mrs. Donovan, a member of Beta Sigma Phi, was very active in the Kansas City chapter. Donovan became an Engineer in the U.S. Army. He is a mechanical engineer in sales for the Delaval Steam Turbine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson of Old Mill road entertained at a cocktail party Saturday evening preceding the Saturday, Duluth club party.

The guests were the Robert Dewars of Westchester village, the Al M. Manuvas, Kenneth Haman, Mrs. Charles Esters, Frank Shales, Robert Stahl and the Marty McNeishes.
