Mrs. Raymond Shaw Honors Teacher At Bridal Shower

WING LAKE — A combined Valentine and shower party was given Feb. 12 by Mrs. Raymond Shaw of Sherman for 16 guests, all teachers at East Southfield school. The party was in honor of Janet Korop, sixth grade teacher who was married last week.

Games and prizes were followed by refreshments served from a table decorated in red and white. The centerpiece was a large red crepe paper heart flanked with white flowers.

Earl Neumanns Visit Westminster Dog Show in New York

ORCHARD HILLS — Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neumann, of Colby lane, have returned from a week's visit in New York City where they attended the Westminster dog show at Madison Square Garden. Although the Neumanns breed and raise Great Danes, they were just spectators during this visit.

During recesses of the show, the Neumanns with long time friends from Atlanta, Ga., Chicago, Ill. and Detroit, visited spots of interest in the city, most memorable being the two hours spent viewing the fabulous pet collection of Harry Winston, Jewelers.

Pack B-36 Cub Scouts Hold Pinewood Derby

BLOOMFIELD — Monday evening cub scouts of Pack B-36 held their annual bi-weekly pinewood derby and pinewood derby at the Vaughan school. The cubs and their families, which numbered some 200 people, gathered at tables decorated in blue and gold. The cubs in each den made their own place cards, place mats and centerpieces.

Present of the evening was the pinewood derby race. Each cub and his father worked for weeks to build a scale model racing car.

A week before the race, each den had an opportunity to practice for the race on a miniature track. The Fathers and their sons could then perfect their cars for the final race. Excitement ran mighty high on the big night. Each den raced their cars and those who placed first through fifth in the final round. The winner of the final heat was Tommy Bachman, and runner-up, Danny Hamlin.

Individual den winners were: Michael Pollock, den 2; Mark Muncie, 3; Tommy Bachman, 5; Matt Smith, 6; John French, 8; Bob Montbar, 8; Walter Ellis, 11; Danny Hamlin, 15 and den chief William W. Howard.

Each den winner and runner-up received a trophy as well as the pack winner and runner-up.

This year pack B-36 donated a plaque to form a non-profit corporation to form a non-profit corporation to promote development, improvement and maintenance of the neighborhood.

Articles of incorporation have been filed under the name "Bloomfield Heights Association." The meeting was called to elect a set of by-laws and to elect the association's first board of directors.

Calling the meeting was a temporary resident or non-resident, Richard B. Ewing, W. F. D. Grant, R. F. Grindley, Lee Griffith, William H. Howard, Charles Livingston, David W. Nelson, W. G. O'Brien, Milton L. Prashaw, Samuel H. Sachs, August Sturges, and H. Spangler.

Request Support For Tree Program

LATHRUP — Letters will go out to city residents asking $1.50 per elm tree or their proportion to the city to put a tree spray on program into effect.

City fathers also urge residents to participate in a pruning and fertilizing program designed to strengthen trees against the disease.

City administrator Leonard A. Watchowski said the recently purchased tree sprayer has been delivered. Before any spraying program is launched residents will be notified, he said.

Lathrup Accepts Bid To Clean Sewers

LATHRUP — Bid of Mike Harahan company's low bid of $6,570 to clean 11,300 feet of sewers, was accepted Monday night by council. Harahan promised to begin 15 days after being awarded the contract, and added that he would complete the project within 60 days.

A quit claim deed to the city sewers from the Charles D. Kelly has been filed by council before Harahan begins his work. Kelly promised prompt action on the deed Monday at council session.

Vote National Bank As City Depository

LATHRUP — National Bank of Detroit branch at 11 Mile and Southfield has been voted by city council as depository for city funds.

It was this same bank that council and some residents opposed about a year ago when, after granting a building permit, they learned that the building would face 11 Mile rather than Southfield.

Council claimed the bank was being constructed on residential property, and until now, attempts to use the bank for depositing city funds has been vetoed by council.

Den One Cubs Win Blue Ribbon At Pack B-6 Dinner

WING LAKE — At the Blue and gold dinner last week, Pack B-6 of cub scout pack B-6, Wing Lake school, won the blue ribbon for the best table at the dinner.

For the 25 guests seated at their table they had yellow place mats with log cabin cut cups and the place cards were alternately the head of a cub and the head of a Lincoln. The centerpiece was a large log cabin topped with a log cabin cake surrounded by miniature cups.

All other dens each won a red ribbon for outstanding table decorations.

Den one's den mother and assistant are Mrs. John Richter and Mrs. Donald Dickerson.

Church Buys Land At 13 & Evergreen

SOUTHFIELD — First Baptist church of Berkeley will ask township board of appeals for use of a house just east of Evergreen on 13 Mile road for a temporary building until they can build a permanent building on a corner lot there.

Church officials say they may use the house for a parsonage after the church is constructed.

Newcomers to Franklin Include French Family

FRANKLIN — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dechape and their three children, Josie, Lynn and Jerry, arrived recently from Paris, France. Until they find a home of their own, they are visiting Mrs. Dechape's brother and his family, the Rodriges-Cretes of Woodside.

Although the children do not speak English, they are impressed to help them find their way around town. Jerry is in the fourth grade. The teachers have been most cooperative, says Mrs. Cretes. The children will learn English quickly, but until they do, a friendly amie is the best means of communication.
