William Blumberg, Birmingham Native Dies Suddenly

William G. Blumberg, of 308 Pierce, a life-long resident of Birmingham, died suddenly yesterday morning in a Pontiac business office.

Born Nov. 16, 1876, he attended Birmingham high school, and, on Jan. 29, 1909, he married Blanche Hageman in Bloomfield Hills. She survives him.

His father, Michael Blumberg, operated the gate that used to be at the corner of Woodward and 14 Mile streets.

Besides his wife, Mr. Blumberg leaves a brother, Neil, of Alva, Okla., a nephew, and four nieces, one of whom, Mrs. William Kaurin, lives in Birmingham.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Mackley Bailey funeral home, 183 Oakland, Birmingham.

Expand Services To Bank Customers

The Detroit Bank and Trust Company will bring its broad and extensive trust and advisory services to residents of the Bloomfield, Birmingham and other South Oakland County areas, beginning this week, according to Herbert H. Gardner, senior vice president.

"The consolidation of banking services of the past year enables the bank to initiate and maintain trust service of the Birmingham office on Woodward Avenue at Hamilton," Gardner said. "We look forward to welcoming our friends and customers."

The trust department will advise with clients on estate problems and those related to personal, financial affairs.
