Newly Wed Abbrechts Travel to New York

Dr. and Mrs. Peter Abbrecht will make their home in Detroit when they return from a wedding trip to New York and Washington, D. C.

MARION BECKER

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth

Mr. and Mrs. Otto K. Becker of Charlottesville, Va., formerly of Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion Amalia, to James A. Johnson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Johnson of Detroit.

Marion, who resides at 611 Elm, Birmingham, is employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone company in Royal Oak and is affiliated with Phi Alpha Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Jim is a junior chemical engineering student at Wayne State University.

A late summer wedding is being planned.

Derby School PTA Plans Open House

Parents of Derby junior high school students will attend an open house sponsored by the PTA, Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the school.

Following the same schedule, two children do, they'll travel from class to class, and have the opportunity of meeting the teachers.

The newly completed gym will be open for inspection and several displays of class work have been set up by the students. A social hour and refreshments will follow, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edward Howitt.

THE BRIDE is the former Anne Patterson Lamoman, daughter of the Henry Durrell Lamomans of Grosse Pointe. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Abbrecht of 2405 Parkstone lane, Bloomfield township.

A wide border of lace outlined the V neckline of the bride's pearly Dupioni silk gown. Styled with long sleeves and pointed waistline, it featured a full skirt with back sweep. A lace cap secured the bride's tiered illusion veil and Amazon lilies and white hyacinths were combined for her bouquet.

GOWNS of aqua lined lace over taffeta were worn by the matron of honor, Mrs. Leonard K. Howard, and the bridesmaids, Sara Barnes, Jane Loveland and Nancy Hoyt.

Karl Marsh was best man and guests were seated by Martin Abbrecht, Leonard R. Howard, Thomas Stein and Henry D. Lamoman, Jr.
