

MRS. EDWARD L. WICHMAN

Wichman-McKenny Rites Read Saturday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McKenny of Norwich road entertained at a reception in their home following the Saturday evening marriage of their daughter, Karen Ann, to Airman 1/C Edward L. Wichman.

The do-no-see, candlelight wedding rites were performed in the Congregational church of Birmingham by Rev. Robert Dewey. Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Wichman of 1439 Humphrey are parents of the groom.

KAREN'S floor length "bridal gown" was fashioned of frothy white net with insets of chambrille lace in the skirt and bodice, which was topped by a matching short sleeved jacket.

Her elbow length veil cascaded from a bonnet of sequins and pearls, and she carried a white Bible adorned with a white orchid.

Elaine McKenny was her sister's maid of honor, and Andrea Southworth of Brookside road, Youngsfield township, served as bridesmaid.

Their gowns were made of beige lace interwoven with gold threads, and worn over beige tulle. Small crowns of iridescent pearls held their short veils. Yellow roses made up the bride-maid's colonial bouquet and were combined with ivory streamers for the honor maid.

FLOWER GIRL Susan Higgins, both hands were pink and white, and carried a matching basket bearing pink rose petals, to complement her pink nylon dotted swiss over white tulle frock.

Guests were ushered by Richard Bacon of Birmingham, Best man was Wallace Higginbotham of Birmingham.

A navy blue silk dress, pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations was the choice of the mother of the bride. The mother of the groom also wore navy blue, in a crepe material. Her accessories and corsage were in white.

The newlyweds ate on a Canadian honeymoon. Mrs. Wichman will reside with her parents until her husband completes his military service in the fall. He is stationed at Mountain Home Air Force base in Idaho.

Gibbs Alumnae Members to Model At Fashion Show

Katharine Gibbs Alumnae association of Detroit is finalizing plans for a dress-fashion show to take place at the Birmingham Community House March 30.

Proceeds will be awarded to a Detroit area girl in the nature of a scholarship to one of the Katharine Gibbs schools.

Co-chairmen are Mrs. Herbert A. Greene and Mrs. Robert G. Saltman, both of Larchlea drive, Birmingham.

Hibbs' shop will supply the fashions, which will be modeled by members of the association.
