John Virgins Return from Week Of Sightseeing in New York City

Home again after a whirlwind week of sight-seeing in New York are the John Virgins of Meadowlane drive. They found the plays "Auntie Mame" and "Happy Hunting" most enjoyable.

One of the sight-seeing trips took them through the Empire State building and the United Nations building, where a general assembly was in session.

Another stop was at St. John of the Divine Episcopal cathedral, which has been in the building process for 71 years and is almost completed. When finished the cathedral will be the world's largest.

Newlywed Cahills Travel to Austria

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burke Cahill left today on the Dutch ship "Ryndam" for Europe and then to Innsbruck, Austria, where they will live and attend the University of Innsbruck for a year.
