

Lathrup Village

CAROLINE ERBACHER
ELGIN 6-4341

DOROTHY ZATELL · ELGIN 6-2039

Interior Decorator Speaks At Lathrup Woman's Club

LATHRUP — "Today's Trends in Decorating" will title Valerie Stevens' talk at Lathrup Woman's Club at 1:30 p.m. Monday, March 4 at the House-in-the-Woods.

Located in Detroit for several years, Mrs. Stevens, of Valerie Stevens Interiors, moved her shop to Birmingham three years ago. Her work, extending over the Detroit metropolitan area, reaches as far as Chicago, La Grange and Winnetka and into the upper peninsula ending in the "Copper Country."

Mrs. Stevens is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Mother of two daughters, she is four times a grandmother.

With the market season just over in Chicago and Grand Rapids, Mrs. Stevens will illustrate her talk with materials which she brought back with her. She will discuss new trends as revealed at the markets with changes in color treatment, and ways to clarify the functions of a decorator.

What to expect of a decorator and how she works.

Mrs. Harold Nash is chairman of the tea committee. Working with her are Mrs. Clarence Gilderleeve, Mrs. Conrad Bloom, Mrs. Robert Strayer, Mr. Johnson and Mrs. J. J. Sawyer. Mrs. Glen W. Loftstrom and Mrs. Richard Cunge will pour.

VALERIE STEVENS.

Father-Daughter Events Planned By Girl Scouts

LATHRUP — March is Girl Scout month with girls from Brown to Senior age busily selling cookies and planning father-daughter affairs.

Lathrup neighborhood with its 250 girls spread throughout 36 troops, will have five father-daughter parties starting today.

Lathrup troop 900, 601 and 487, all brownies, George Russell of Styles of yesterday displayed by Lathrup Woman's Club members. Section C, page 1.

Lathrup Village has volunteered its services as caller for the square dancing.

On March 7, three more Brownie troops will dine with their dads. The troops are 706, 707 and 708, chairman of the dinner committee is Mrs. C. J. Beck, assisted by Mrs. H. O. Krippendorf and Mrs. J. S. Moss.

INTERMEDIATE troops 8 and 11 will celebrate on March 14. Chairman for the evening is Mrs. Robert Ewart, assisted by Mrs. G. E. Benton. Following dinner a square dancing will be called by George Russell.

Mrs. W. B. Commons and Mrs. R. E. Isaacson assisted by Mrs. Frederick Ray are planning the March 21 dinner for troops 106, 440, 595 and 158. A buffet style dinner, is being planned followed by a square dancing at Lathrup school.

Troops 106, 610, 105 and 107 seniors will have a carnival dinner, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Albert Flemming and Mrs. A. B. Plantree.

Cherry Commons To Entertain At Dance Party

LATHRUP — Miss Cheryl Commons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Commons of East Grafton will entertain 18 friends at a party Saturday evening.

There will be games, dancing and dinner in the family room which Cheryl is decorating in a red and white crepe paper paper festivity and with red and white checked table cloths. She is also making her invitations and place cards.

Guests will be Jane Herrick, Judy Wastewald, Kathy Konecny, Lois Gorman, Judy Hines, Susan Goulet, Jill Frustenberg, Cheryl Schroeder, Steve Binton, Carl Stapleton, Mike Maser, Bob Kemp, Harry Reusser, Tom Van Meer, Ted Malton and David Waldast.

Lt. Cmdr. Malcolm D. Ross and M. L. Lewis broke a record for manned balloon ascents on Nov. 8, 1956, when they rode a giant balloon 116 miles into the stratosphere.

and in sidewalk cafe fashion, was the scene of the party.

Lathrup guests included the Joseph Graces and daughters Pat and Joan, the Harry Flabertys, John Theeys, Constantine (Goguts), Douglas, Watsons, Wendell Daer, Ings, Drexler, Cattano, Lawrence Gardiners and the Frank Dawes.

CAROL FISHTAHLER, daughter of the Vernon F. Fashtahlers of Wiltshire celebrated her tenth birthday last week with 31 classmates and friends. Blowing out the candles on the birthday cake are Joyce Anderson (left), Carol, Suzanne Dyla and Beverly Hyde.

EXCELLENT!

This home is in beautiful condition and has excellent equipment, plus many extras in modern conveniences.

Large Living Room and Dining Room separated by unique fireplace.

Birch Kitchen, large Utility room.

3 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths.

Screened and Glassed Porch with view in rear and built-in grill.

2-car heated Garage with electric eye opener.

Fully Carpeted. Custom drapes.

New appliances may be purchased separately.

2-Zone control Radiant heat.

The site is over 1 1/2 acres and all in beautiful grass and excellent landscaping. This is an easy house to maintain and you can move in without doing one thing but arrange your furniture. Owner moving.

SNYDER KINNEY & BENNETT

INC.

Realtors

239 S. WOODWARD

MI 4-7000

Perfection In Comfort

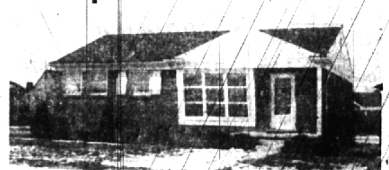

3 bedrooms and 2 outstanding tiled baths. PANEELED den and DELIGHTFUL fire-placed living room. 13 ft. dining room and large kitchen with eating space. 2 1/2 car attached garage. Beautiful grounds. $39,500.

Quiet and Shaded

Tree lined all brick ranch with 3 B/G bedrooms, 1 1/2 tiled baths, and full basement with recreation room. Carpeting and drapes. A Lovely Home. $20,900.

Unsurpassable Rec. Room

100 ft. lot and 3 LARGE bedrooms in this all-brick ranch home. PANEELED eating space in the handy kitchen, and nice dining-el. Carpeting and draperies. Nice location. $19,300.

CHAMBERLAIN

Woodward at 14 1/2 Mile BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

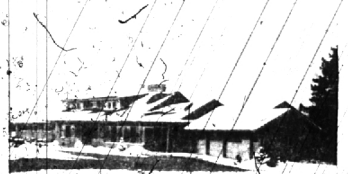

REALTORS

MI 6-6000 JO 6-1527

BUILDING
Your Plan or Ours
CONVENTIONAL & PRE-FABRICATED
Johnson Construction Co.
National Homes Dealer
Phone MI 4-0328

Want Ads cannot be accepted after 5 p.m. each Tuesday

From a 3 acre Bloomfield Hilltop

near the Center

VISTAS in all directions! Wooded hills and valleys. Beautifully terraced rock gardens sprawling down the hillside. . . specimen trees, distant views.

ARE you seeking the "bonus" living space in a 1 1/2 level design? It's well done here, with garden-level Family Room, 3 Twin Bedrooms and 2 full Baths on the first floor. . . full Dining Room, richly paneled Library, 2 more Bedrooms and Bath above, when needed.

EXPER construction, and expert detail will please you. . . clever built-ins will intrigue you. Custom built for the owner. . . you'll find only the best of everything here.

Outstanding in a selected list at

MAX BROOCK INC.
MI 4-6700

David Cogan's Return from Trip To West Coast

LATHRUP — Mr. and Mrs. David J. Cogan of San Quentin have returned from a very gay and colorful three-week trip to San Francisco, Calif. where Mr. Cogan conducted the automobile dealer's convention.

During the convention's daytime meetings, the very distinguished group of prominent homes of the city and met such celebrities as George Raft, Ben Blue, and Maxie Roper. The program "People's Choice" and James Arness, hero of TV show "Gunsmoke."

The ladies also attended a Chinese and Oriental fashion show in Gump's one of San Francisco.

Lathrup students like new school - cooking. Section B, page 5.

leading stores, Mr. Gump presented a book with a copy of a recent book "Good Taste, Good Taste" as a souvenir.

Fortunately their stay included the safety of the Chinese New Year, Feb. 1. This is marked by a colorful parade similar to Mardi Gras with very grotesque head dresses and masks and fantastic costumes.

Enroute home they stopped in Denver, Colo. where they visited the Denver campus and old friends. While there they drove to Loveland, Colo., 20 miles from Denver where they mailed their Valentines. Loveland is famous for its postmaster's special Valentine stamp design that goes on each valentine mailed from there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mulligan of Mendocino also attended the convention from Lathrup.

Lathrup Residents Announce Births

LATHRUP — It's a second grandson for the George Rostows of Quanta drive. Born Feb. 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lundblad, he has been named James George.

Mrs. Lundblad is the former Shirley Rostow, who taught 2nd grade at the Adams school in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Sinek of Bangalow drive announce the birth of a daughter on Feb. 12. Named Stephanie Sue, she has an elder brother, John, 8.

John W. Davises Welcome Return Of J. H. Fay Family

LATHRUP — Major and Mrs. John H. Fay and their three children returned this year from two and a half years in North Africa where they were stationed first in Rabat and then at Wheelus field in Tripoli. Major Fay is with the USAF. They have now been transferred to Andrews AFB.

Mrs. Fay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Davis of Glenwood. They are long-time residents of Lathrup, having lived here since Mrs. Fay was seven years old.

Before re-entering the service, Major Fay was president of Officers (Oakland County Air Force Reserve Officers association).

Expecting the arrival of her fourth grandchild, Mrs. Davis will visit her daughter and son-in-law following the baby's birth at their new home in Andrews.

Lathrup Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Deland of Lathrup had entertained eight guests for cocktails and late buffet following the IFA square dance Friday night. The guests were all Lovell Route friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Cummins of "Rainbow" drive have returned from a trip to Chicago where they attended the Feb. 15 wedding of Miss Campbell's niece, Rita Moran. Who became the bride of James Walker. While there they stayed at her family home in Oak Park and visited her two sisters.

Mrs. Fred Cummins will entertain Friday morning at a brunch in honor of the birthday of her neighbor, Mrs. Fred Haugh. Guests will be eight of the neighbors and a card will be played for the afternoon.

Dr. Charles Berger Hosts 45 Couples At Buffet Supper

LATHRUP — Dr. Charles Berger of 45 physicians and their wives at a cocktail party and buffet supper.

The Berger reception room, decorated with French travel posters,

ON A RAVINE

Architectural perfection and an exquisite garden combine to make this home one of the most outstanding in Beverly. There are lovely views from all windows.

Large living room, den, glassed Florida room. Three large bedrooms, two baths, lavatory, plus maid's room and bath.

Call us for an appointment.

KATHLEEN MADONNA

31815 SOUTHFIELD

MI 6-6640

MI 6-3464