

South Berkshires Social Briefs

Peripatetic South Berkshires are gradually returning to home base. Like the old nursery rhyme, "Some like it hot and some like it cold" travelers favored both the sunny climes and (of all things!) more snow.

Back in their home on Vernon drive, are the Lewy Camels, after a fabulous cruise aboard the Ile de France, to exotic ports in the Caribbean and South America. Mrs. Camel says that a recent article in a national magazine describing the superb cuisine aboard the ship of this line was, if anything, an understatement.

Ports of call included such romantic places as Balboa, Curacao, Martinique and Trinidad, thus qualifying the Camels as experts on the current calypso rage.

In contrast, the John Severts of Leomoor Drive visited in favor of the mecca of all ski lovers, Mt. Tremblant, Quebec. Not the least of their enjoyment was the opportunity for a visit to the French village which had been set a little rusty.

Casting their vote in favor of sunshine were the Ernst Kintz's of Marimoor drive who are just now settling down after a boat trip to Bermuda, capped by an extensive whirl in New York City on their return to that port.

Their rounds included the Copa and Rainbow Room and were climaxed by a visit to NBC and TV star Gieselle McKenris.

Guests of the Drake hotel in Chicago are the Donald Raders of Leomoor Drive, who rendezvoused there with friends from St. Louis and Indiana, and at last reports were doing the Windy City spots.

Stay-at-homers, however were not hibernating. Mrs. Patrick Welsh of Embassy drive entertained a group of friends in a style show and luncheon at the Detroit Yacht Club. Included was a large luncheon for friends hosted by Mrs. George Williams of Marimoor drive.

Also keeping up her fast pace of social activities was Mrs. Alex Nead of Leomoor drive, who recently entertained a group of area residents at cards and midnight supper.
