Shamrock Luncheon, Fashion Show Set For March 14

WEST BEVERLY—The Hostess club is holding its Shamrock luncheon and fashion show at the Birmingham Country club March 14. The fashion show will be presented by Davidsons and models will be members and area residents. Mrs. John E. Harling, general chairman, is assisted by Mrs. L. J. Lienesmeier in charge of fashions; Mrs. Hugh Allerton, tickets; Mrs. M. A. Beukema, publicity; Mrs. F. S. Carney, prizes; and Mrs. E. H. Vogelzy, decorations. Any West Beverly women who have not been contacted by block hostesses for this affair should call Mrs. Hugh Allerton on Hillcrest or Mrs. R. McMillan on Mayfair.

Beverly Social Briefs

Christine, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rowell G. Burroughs of Auburn celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday by inviting several friends in for the afternoon. Games were played and prizes awarded the winners, followed by ice cream and birthday cake. Guests were Kathryn Elford, Deborah Bartlett, Linda Major, Janet Ewell, Susan Raymond, and her sister Roslyn.

Bobby, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. King Ruby of Loehrbach, also celebrated his seventh birthday Saturday. He invited 19 friends in for dinner and they enjoyed playing games and winning prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Kopf of Lauderdale are leaving March 14 to make their home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Powers of Glencoe have returned from a trip through the Caribbean and South America. They sailed from New York on the Empress of Scotland, stopping at San Juan, Porto Rico, Latinum, with a motor trip over the Andes to Caracas, then on to Colon where they took a boat ride through the Canal to Panama City.

After all that wonderful sight-seeing, they boarded their ship again and on the return trip to New York made a stopover at Havana, Cuba, long enough to see the city and enjoy the night life there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Shephard of Riverside drive, returned this week from a ten day visit to New Orleans, where Mr. Shephard attended a meeting of the American Society of Testing Material. While Mr. Shephard attended the meetings, Mrs. Shephard visited a former Birmingham resident, Mrs. Kenneth Swartwood, at Baton Rouge, and saw the many points of interest in and around New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick Crane of Warwick recently returned from a trip to the west coast where Mr. Crane attended the New York Life Insurance managers convention in California, Calif. Prior to attending the convention they spent four days at San Francisco.

Beta Sigma Phi Sponsors Fashion Show for Children

WEST BEVERLY—On March 14 at 10 a. m. Beta Sigma Phi will be the sponsor of a children's fashion show sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi society. The youth center will present the fashions and the show will be called "Portrait of Spring." Models of the young models will be children of members of the society. Tickets for the affair may be purchased from Mrs. Dagny Remond of Marguerite, general chairman of the affair, at that evening at the home.

Games may be played after the show and refreshments will be served.

West Beverly Newcomers

WEST BEVERLY—Newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Quinn of Northester who were recently married in St. Catherine's Chapel, St. Peter and Pauls desert Church, Detroit. Mr. Quinn is with General Motors Technical Center, and his hobby is fishing. At the present time Mrs. Quinn's hobby is furnishing her new home.

Also West Beverly newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Hough, formerly of Detroit, who moved to Riverside drive in the fall. While Mr. Hough is now retired from his post as vice president, he is still on the board of directors of Douglas & Tomason Co., Detroit, manufacturers of automobile parts.

Gold is his chief hobby and he is a member of the Red Run Golf club. The Houghs have one son, Edgar N. Miller who lives with his family in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. and Judith Ellen, 7, and Mr. Monahan's mother, have returned from a vacation at Miami Beach, Fla. where they enjoyed deep sea fishing, swimming and sight-seeing.

Mr. William F. Boss of Beauvoir, Birmingham, recently opened a few days in Bellion at Coronado, Calif. Prior to attending the convention they spent four days at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. William Monahan of Marguerite and daughters Barb-

Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Varley of Wetherby are the parents of a daughter, Colleen Marie, born Jan. 30, at Mr. Carmel hospital, weighing 9 lbs. 12 oz. Colleen Marie has two sisters Margaret, 5, Mary Eileen, 2, and a brother Michael, 3.

St. James Episcopal church was the scene of the christening Sunday of Russell Field Manning III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Manning of Detroit, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Manning of Dunblaine. The Rev. Harold Towne officiated at the service. A luncheon was held at the home of the grandparents after the service for the godparents, friends and relatives.

Plan Bd. Interviews

SOUTHFIELD—Township board will hold a special meeting March 7 to interview any additional applicants for seats on the planning commission.
