

How paradoxical it all is, that people brought up in a land where very freedoms were sunk deep in the belief that personal liberty is necessary for mankind to obtain its largest happiness, so hopelessly accept the shackles of bureaucratic government. For every current step toward Socialism is away from freedom.

Puppeteers Have New Marionettes

There are some brand new little people in Birmingham, and they're being introduced to the children by their creators, the Birmingham Puppeteers. These are the marionettes especially made for the little stage, which can be taken into homes and hospital rooms where a large puppet stage cannot visit.

A tiny Little Nightingale first came to life in an original Chinese fantasy written by Mrs. L. A. Kuroski, operating the puppets in their adventures as Mrs. Everette Walsh, Mrs. Richard Kunning and Mrs. Bryce Beecher.

Two magic characters—a butterfly and a dragon—delighted the children at Webster School in Pontiac on Friday, as they tried to curling will be followed by a mid-night supper served to all guests under the supervision of Mrs. Kenneth Conn, refreshments chairman.

Mrs. Frederick Crockett, 1805 Melborne, who is chairman of the Birmingham Chapter of the National Nephrosis Foundation as well as a member of the Pi Phi Alumnae, will have among her guests for the party Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas Adair of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkpatrick of Ann Arbor. Adair is the President of the Michigan Chapter of the National Nephrosis Foundation and Mrs. Kirkpatrick is the public relations chairman of the Michigan chapter.

rescue Little Nightingale. Three performances were given for the three second grades.

The little stage cast, with Mrs. John May acting as their substitute, plan three performances this month and will visit the children at Pontiac State Hospital soon after.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—all the society editor about them.

Pi Phis to Sponsor Benefit Skating and Curling Party

Bloomfield Hills Alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi will sponsor a "Skating and Curling Party" Feb. 9 from 7:30 p.m. to midnight at the Detroit Curling club, 1236 West Forest, Detroit.

Pi Phi Alumnae and their guests will be sliding and sweeping the heavy granite stones used in the ancient Scottish game of Curling on the benefit of the Michigan Chapter of the National Nephrosis Foundation. Nephrosis is a disease of the kidneys, affecting mostly the younger children. Contributions are needed for the Childhood Nephrosis research projects in hospitals and medical colleges in Michigan where efforts are being made to find Better, ticket chairman, was able to report to Mrs. Philip Detwiler, president of the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi, that all available 200 tickets were sold three weeks ago, and that the demand for tickets had far exceeded the supply.

IN THE event of a skating accident, the need for a doctor can be met. Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Keefe, Williamsbury road, compiled a list of doctors and their wives to invite to the Detroit Curling club. Included were Dr. and Mrs. Robin Adair, Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Miller, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Gounger, Dr. and Mrs. James Morton, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Weiss, and Dr. and Mrs. J. Philip Laux, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Preston Dozier, Jr., are entertaining friends for dinner in their Franklin Village home prior to the skating and curling. Invited are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hampson and Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Thomas.

In the group attending with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Detwiler (Mrs. Detwiler is president of the Pi Phi Alumnae) are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Downs and Mr. and Mrs. William Sessions of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beyer of Grosse Pointe.

QUITE happily, Mrs. Marshall
