MRS. RICHARD GORDON COOK

Married Saturday In Double Ring Rites

Judith Anne Miller and Richard Gordon Cook exchanged vows and rings at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, in St. Mary's church, Spring Lake, Mich. Monsignor A. J. LaRoux read the rites before 400 wedding guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Miller of Grand Haven, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Cook of Lake Park, Birmingham.

For her marriage Judith wore a floor length gown of rosepoint lace over tulle. The gown was fashioned with a scalloped deep neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The empire waistline was trimmed with a velvet ribbon falling into a bow and streamers in the back. A lace apron effect coming to a point in front and back embellished the nylon tulle bouffant skirt.

A matching lace pill box held in place her French illusion fingertip veil. She carried a cascade of calla lilies tied with white velvet ribbon.

Four attendants were gowned in waltz length frocks of bamboo green tulle. Their low torso bodices featured V-necklines and gathered shoulders. Bouffant skirts were styled with girles of Venice lace. They wore matching mits and head bands, trimmed with rose veils. Their semi colonial bouquets of white carnations were centered with white roses.

Pauline Rozank was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Janet Miller, Judy Klukos and Mary Kay Vogelsang.

Junior bridesmaids were Connie Cook, sister of the groom and Mary Ellen Miller, sister of the bride. They wore matching gowns and headpieces and carried semi-colonial bouquets of carnations and roses.

DAVID COOK, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were John Bosma, Mike Jacobson and Sandy Beerlihm.

Judith's mother chose a silk crepe dress of swagewood blue accented with accessories of pearl gray. Richard's mother wore a silk crepe dress of navy blue with matching accessories. Both mothers had corsages of roses.

The newlyweds plan to make their home in Bowling Green, Ohio.
