

MRS. GERALD R. MCGINTY

Peggy Hayes Weds Gerald R. McGinty

Margaret Ruth Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Hayes of Pilgrim road, Birmingham, and Gerald R. McGinty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry McGinty of Long Island, N. Y., exchanged wedding vows Saturday morning in Holy Name church.

Two hundred and fifty guest witnesses of the ceremony, and were greeted at a breakfast reception, immediately following, in Birmingham country club.

FOR HER wedding dress, Peggy chose a bridal gown fashioned of ivory Italian silk with an overlay of lace, in the empire bodice, forming a shirred neckline. The skirt, designed in princess lines, flared into a full, sweeping train which was caught up into a bustle.

A lace cap outlined her fingertip length veil and collar lined and ivy were combined for her bouquet.

She was preceded down the aisle by the matron of honor, Mrs. John Doolaghan of South Evanston, Bloomfield township, and bridesmaids, Mrs. Milton Fogarty Jr., of Berkeley, and Mrs. Vincent Hayes of Cambridge Village.

DRESSED identically, in emerald-green, long-sleeved, high-collared, they wore ivy wreaths and carried arrangements of deep red gladioli.

The groom's sisters, James and Martin of Long Island and Thomas of Ann Arbor, arrived as best man and usher, respectively. Also coming guests were the bride's brothers, Vincent and John.

Brown velvet trimmed the monk-colored silk ensemble worn by the bride's mother, Mrs. McGinty selected a Dior blue pearl de soi dress, with matching hat. Their flowers were white orchids.

WEDDING guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly of Highland Park, the groom's aunt, Mrs. Mary Tenbrook, and his sister, Mrs. John Murphy, both of Long Island.

Peggy's honeymoon costume was a grey wool suit dress complemented by a yellow straw flowered hat. Upon returning from their wedding trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Bloomfield Hills.
