Newly Formed Cub Pack B-14
Receives Charter at Meeting

The newly-formed Cub Scout Pack B-14 at Eastover school was presented its charter last week in the school's multi-purpose room.

Dan Adams, neighborhood commissioner of District one, North Adams community, presented the charter to the pack cub master, Clinton Cook, fifth grade teacher at Eastover. Until last fall when the Eastover school was opened, the cub pack was of the Vaughn school, Pack B-35.

New pack officers are Hugh Carney, committee chairman, John L'Hote, assistant cub master, Douglas Clark, institutional representative, Joseph Paulick, secretary and treasurer.

Other officers are David DeWitt, awards chairman; Norman Barnes, membership; Elmer Plaxton, activities and Murray Olson, Webelos chairman.

Mrs. Norman Barnes is the pack mother of the four dens.

Dens mothers are Mrs. Tony Spina of den 1, Mrs. Kenneth Bort, den 2, Mrs. Vernon Lee, den 3, Mrs. J. J. Jones, den 4.

The cubs served punch, coffee and cookies that they had made for the eventful evening. The pack will hold their meetings every fourth Monday in the school's multi-purpose room.

The new Wendover subdivision, located north of Thornwood and east of Adams, has its first new-comers. They are the Lawrence Seltz family of Paddington road. Their three children are Terry, 10, Richard, 7, and Linda, 6, all are students at Pembroke. Mr. Seltz is affiliated with Duggmann and Furney Plumbing & Heating Co., Detroit, and is a photography enthusiast.

New residents on Squirrel road are the William McCaffrey of Youngstown, Ohio. They have five children, Nancy, 9, Mary Lee, 8, Mark, 7, Frances, 6, Russell, 2. The older children attend St. Hugo. Mr. McCaffrey is with the Charles J. Rogers Transportation Co., Melvindale.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaffrey have just returned from a trip to Pittsburgh, Pa., where they attended the company's annual traffic meeting.

Also on Squirrel are the Robert Avery's enjoying their new home. Their move was from Clawson, where Mr. Avery has his own insurance agency. He belongs to the Exchange club in Clawson and the Elks in Royal Oak.

The Avery children are Karl, 8, Beverly, 4, Sandra, 3. Karl is a pupil at Vaughn. Mrs. Avery is a den mother, den 11, Vaughn school, pack 36.

The Marston Warrs are new-comers on West Orchard Hill drive.

They have a daughter, Elizabeth, who is a junior in economics at the University of Michigan. Their two daughters are Jo Ann, 9, Janie, 5, students at Adams. Mr. Gerhard is sales manager at Swedish Crucible Steel in Detroit.

The Gerhard's are sports enthusiasts and enjoy the theater. They have another family interest. They recently returned from a two weeks flying trip to Brownsville, Texas and Monterey, Mexico.

The Joseph Galavollers are newcomers to Hasldington road. They have four children, Laura, 8, attending Holy Name; Linda, 3, Jos. 2, and Sharon, 1 month. Mr. Galavoller is a chemist at the Ethel Corp., Detroit. Harlan, Shing and high-8 are among the family's interests.

Another new resident on Hasldington road are Dr. and Mrs. James Mimura, formerly of Highland Park. The doctor is an ear, nose and throat specialist and has offices in Royal Oak.

The Mimura children are Judy, 6, attending Adams and Paul, 3.
