

MRS. RICHARD J. PASTOR

Newlywed R. J. Pastors Honeymoon for Month

Carol Mary McInerney wore a princess style gown of Peau de soie antique silk for her marriage to Richard John Pastor last Saturday in Precious Blood church, Detroit. Monsignor William Hermes read the double ring rites before 500 wedding guests.

The neckline and long sleeves of the bridal gown were trimmed in Alencon lace and embroidered with pearls and sequins. A traditional fingertip veil with rose point lace fell from a crown of pearls and sequins.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Faltis McInerney of Rosemond drive, Franklin. Her husband's parents are the George Pastors of Outer Drive.

ATTEN DAVIS were Bonnie Burke, maid of honor; Mrs. John Hollingworth and Sue Kornik, bridesmaids. They wore identical Dior blue sheath gowns with tulle and draps to the hem. Their Juliet caps with illusion veils were of the same color. They carried spray arrangements of pink carnations.

Judith Cross, niece of the bride,

Village Woman's Club To Hear South of The Border Expert

Edward Tomlinson, correspondent and commentator on hemisphere relations, will address members of the Village Woman's club Wednesday noon. Mrs. L. C. Good and Mrs. James E. Goodman are handling arrangements for the luncheon meeting at Oakland Hills country club.

"Today and Tomorrow in the Americas" is to be Tomlinson's topic. In some thirty years of study and travel, he has accumulated a vast store of first hand information about every one of the countries of Latin America, so that today he knows the background of every event or development that takes place anywhere in that part of the world.

EDWARD TOMLINSON

Tomlinson has reported for newspapers and radio every important Inter-American conference or gathering since 1928. He has spent seven of the past twelve months south of the border, during which he circled the southern continent and the countries of the Caribbean three times and made two long trips by car, train and bus to all the important cities and state capitals of Mexico.

Reservations for this event are being taken by Mrs. Harold R. Roehm, Mrs. Charles L. Chub back in flower chairman and hostesses will be Mrs. J. Thomas Smith, Mrs. George W. Tischer and Mrs. A. L. Hopkins.
