

West Bloomfield LWV to Hold Candidates Rally

WEST BLOOMFIELD — The West Bloomfield League of Women Voters invites the public to attend a candidates rally on Feb. 14 at West Bloomfield high school. Candidates for the school primary election Feb. 18 have been received from all but one. With the exception of one office, candidates will be announced at the April election, making the result of primaries of paramount importance.

The rally will begin at 8:00 p.m. and a coffee hour will follow, when the audience will have an opportunity to become acquainted with the speakers. The high school is at the corner of Orchard Lake and Commerce roads.

Wins Award In Slogan Contest

WALNUT LAKE—Diane Maddren, Walnut Lake school, fifth grader was one of the winners in the safety slogan contest sponsored by the Oakland county sheriff's department. "All the Time is Safety Time All Year Round" was the slogan which won for Diane.

The contest was open to all rural schools in Oakland county, and 30 students entered from Walnut Lake school. Diane was presented with her award Saturday at the Oakland county sheriff's office.

Those who accepted the opportunity to meet new neighbors were Mrs. Louis Garvey, Mrs. James A. Lytle, Mrs. John L. Payne, Mrs. D. J. Snider, Mrs. John S. Pangborn and Mrs. Charles Zeigler.

Tappero Family Members Honor Parents on Golden Anniversary Date

A family dinner party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Tappero, of Kennoway Court, honored his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Tappero of Pana, Ill. on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The dinner was served to 50 members of the family who were entertained with music furnished by a stringing orchestra.

Anecdotes related by each of the honored guests' nine children recalled humorous and sentimental memories of the years they all lived at home together.

The children all present at the dinner, presented Mr. and Mrs. Tappero a golden "money tree" hung with gold-wrapped silver dollars.

Gathering for the first family reunion since 1926, family members came from California, Bushnell, Ill., Pana, Ill., and the Metropolitan Detroit area.

On Friday, Mrs. Philip Sheld will entertain four tables of bridge for Sorosis Club members at her home on Thirteenth Mile road. This is one of a series of fund raising parties to augment the treasury to be used for philanthropic projects.

Mrs. Charles Virgilio of Vermo drive has been quite busy recently attending numerous bridal showers honoring her new daughter-in-law, the former Jane Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gray of Detroit.

The marriage of Jim Virgilio and Jane Gray was solemnized Jan. 26 at St. Benedict's church in High Park, followed by a breakfast for 100 relatives and friends at the UAW hall at Mound road and Nine Mile.

In the evening, 300 guests attended a reception for the couple.

Wilson Subdivision Plat Approved

BINGHAM FARMS — The Wilson subdivision plat was approved at the Bingham Farms council meeting last week. The land lies east of Bingham road between the Shagwood estates and Timber trail in what is commonly known as the old orchard.

The county board of health must approve the land for septic tanks, and the roads must be dedicated before construction may start.

Room for More

FRANKLIN — Reservations for the outing sponsored by the Franklin Men's association are still being taken by Jack Roberts, John Laker and Ken Nichols for the Chicago Black Hawks Detroit Red Wings hockey game Saturday night. A chartered bus will leave Franklin Community hall at 6 p.m. to accommodate the 25 couples expected.

We Heard It Said By:

MRS. FRANKIE McFEAY, worker for Mothers' March for Dimes: "I want to thank all the residents on Castle drive and Castle court for their gracious hospitality on the recent March of Dimes drive. Their response was so friendly and I was so graciously received in all the 14 homes in the area, that I am still enthusiastic about it. I want them to know how much I appreciate it."
