

Obituary Notices

MRS. TRACY F. BAKER (Dorothy V. K.), 65, of 229 West Frank, Birmingham, died suddenly Saturday at Beaumont hospital. Born March 28, 1901, in Los Angeles, Calif., she had been with Doubleday Book shops for 15 years and, since August, manager of book sales for the Birmingham store.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, she was the widow of Tracy F. Baker. She was the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Walter F. Baker of Birmingham. Funeral services were Monday from the chapel of W. R. Hamilton Co., 2975 Cass, Detroit. Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated.

MRS. CHARLES WARNER (nee Alej Josephine Minnie), 91, died Monday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Roger Toothaker, of Romeo. Born Jan. 23, 1865, in Port Huron, she lived in Birmingham from 1945-55. Her husband, whom she married Sept. 6, 1885, died in 1949. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Adelaide Hoover of Romeo and Mrs. Russell Spooner of Dighton; nine grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Nettie Davidson of Benton Harbor.

Services will be at 1 p.m. today from Manley Bailey funeral home, with burial in Hamburg cemetery, near Ann Arbor.

MRS. CHARLES J. FREMUTH (nee Frances Stepaniak), 60, of Highland Park, died Friday at Harper hospital after a long illness. She was born Feb. 26, 1894, in Wyandotte.

Surviving are her husband, who is dining room captain at the JAC; a son, Karl, of Birmingham; six grand-children; two sisters and three brothers. Rosary service was Sunday at Bell chapel, W. R. Hamilton Co., with requiem mass Monday at Holy Name church, Entomment, in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

GRAVESIDE services for Anne Bradford McKenzie, stillborn daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. McKenzie, 350 Catalpa, will be at 11:05 a.m. when an operator running a trench digger, severed the main cable transmitting power into the school. Sparks crackled from the 4800-volt cable under ground being prepared for an athletic field behind the school.

Students were able to eat hot lunch before they were sent home, because the school cooks with gas. Power was not restored until 8 p.m.

No Electricity, No School—No Holiday Results

Over 1200 students were sent home from Derby Junior high school at noon Tuesday when a power failure left the school with no heat, lights, clocks, public address system, or bells.

The failure occurred at 11:05 a.m. when an operator running a trench digger, severed the main cable transmitting power into the school. Sparks crackled from the 4800-volt cable under ground being prepared for an athletic field behind the school.

Patrolmen Train At Michigan State

Three Birmingham patrolmen left this week for a one-month basic police training course at Michigan State university, sponsored by the Michigan Association of Police Chiefs.

Taking the 160-hour course are James Cochran, Keith Pennington and Gordon Baker, all of whom have joined the Birmingham police force within the past year.

conducted Monday at Elmwood cemetery, Detroit.

Besides her parents, Anne leaves her grandparents, Mrs. Maseenick Colwell, Laverne W. Colwell of Monterey, Calif., and Mrs. M. Kelly McKenzie of Birmingham. Funeral arrangements were by Bell chapel, W. R. Hamilton Co.

MRS. MARTIN PICKLE (nee Cora B. Erwin), 70, of 1859 Cole, Birmingham, died Wednesday at the Oakland County Infirmary after a long illness.

Born Sept. 29, 1886, in Washington County, Iowa, she moved to Birmingham eight years ago from Detroit. She was a member of First Methodist church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Burt Buettner, with whom she had made her home, five grandchildren, a brother and two sisters. Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Saturday from Bell chapel, W. R. Hamilton Co., with interment in Forest Lawn cemetery, Detroit.

GM Promotes Mark Kelly

Mark E. Kelly, 888 Bloomerest, Bloomfield township, has been named assistant comptroller of General Motors in charge of the insurance and pension section of the Comptroller's staff.

He succeeds the late Ralph N. Long.

Kelly joined General Motors in 1927 as a member of the treasurer's staff in New York.

He served in various supervisory capacities before he was appointed director of the savings and supplemental benefits section in Detroit in 1955.

Following GM's adoption of a savings-stock purchase program for salaried employees, Kenneth F. Hardy, 412 S. Glenhurst, Birmingham, was named director of the savings and supplemental benefits section, succeeding Kelly.

Hardy has been with General Motors since 1935, when he joined the Hyatt Bearings division. In August, 1948, he joined the financial staff in Detroit and has been assistant director of GM's savings and supplemental benefits section since 1955.
