Leonard Lane Residents Hold Annual Tree Burning Event

The annual Christmas tree burning was held Sunday evening in the Leonard Lane subdivision. Residents brought their trees to a vacant lot and at six o'clock the huge pile of trees were set on fire. The crackling and the blaze delighted the many observing small fry.

Many area residents held open house during the holiday week. Among them were the William Bobbers of Eastover road who entertained 50 guests, many of them neighbors. Punch and supper were served on a gaily decorated table. The E. Milton Rogers of Eastover road also held an open house. The Rogers Christmas tree was taken down early this year to make room for the 80 guests present.

During the holidays the Rogers had as their houseguest, J. Winfred Rogers, a niece from Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. Donald Mills of Romney road entertained at a "coffee" for neighbors in Kentmore subdivision. The 20 attending planned and started two bridge clubs and a pinocle club.

Hosting a pre-New Year's Eve party on Dec. 29, were the Calvia Robertsons of Lenox road. A buffet supper was enjoyed by 14 guests.

A New Year's Eve party was held at the home of the William Robertsons of Robson lane. The three couples enjoying the evening were the Thomas Rasmussens, William Stouffers, Donald Mills, all of Kentmore subdivision.

On Jan. 2, Mr. Rasmussen left on a two weeks trip to Venezuela, British West Indies.

Another New Year's Eve party was given at the John Soroka home on Lennox road. The guests were long time friends and members of a married couples club. A buffet supper was served.

Home again, after spending the holidays in West Lafayette, Ind., are the Frederik Fralicks of Padgett road. A family reunion was held at the home of Professor and Mrs. D. S. Clark, Mrs. Fralick's parents. Other relatives arrived from Anderson, Ind., to join the celebration.

Residents of Kentmore subdivision, located northwest of Long Lake road, formed an association in November. At a meeting at the home of Robert Covert of Lennox road, officers for the coming year were elected.

Carl Christensen was elected president; W. T. LaRue, vice president; Robert Covert, secretary; Norman Barnes, treasurer.

On the board of directors are M. J. Patterson, Milton Scheiter,

Loss of Bike Handicaps Newspaperboy

A 13-year-old Birmingham boy needs your help. Bill Covil, 450 W. Brown, went to the show Saturday afternoon and parked his bicycle in the rack near the Bloomfield theatre. When he came out his bike was gone.

WHAT MAKES IT difficult for Bill is that he has a paper route and foot trouble which have combined to give the Barnum eighth grader problems in delivering the papers on the route he took over just a little over a month ago.

So if, in your daily wanderings you would keep an eye open for Bill's bicycle, it might be possible that he would have it back on his fourteenth birthday Saturday.

The bike, given to Bill just two years ago for his birthday, is a red and black Schwinn "Black Phantom" with chrome fenders, white wall tires, speedometer, headlight and saddle bags. The license number is 4033.

Anyone having information about the bicycle may call the Covils at Midwest 4-1115 or the Birmingham police who already have joined the search.

Harold Beaver, Thomas Rasmussen. A meeting, Jan. 15, will be held at the home of M. J. Patterson of Romney road.

Arthur G. Follows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Follows, 4475 Burnley drive, returned last week to the University of Michigan where he is doing graduate work in the school of music.

A cellist in the university orchestra, Arthur participated in the Christmas concert which featured the Bach's Magnificat, written for the Christmas season of 1723. Arthur is a graduate of Oberlin college.
