Ancient Music To Be Presented By Art Group

Two concerts of ancient and seldom heard music are announced by the Founders society of the Detroit Institute of Arts, to be presented under the sponsorship of a newly organized music committee. This committee includes Howard Harrington of 56th Sussex, Karl M. Richards of 295 Lone Pine road and George W. Romney of Vaughan road, all Bloomfield Hills. New York, Pro Music Antiqua will present Tudor and Elizabethan music February 10. Suzanne Block, player of the lute, recorder and virginals and singer to the lute, will appear March 16.

ULTIMATE objective of the concert series is to enrich the institute's portrayal of the arts by bringing into it the art of music as it has existed in the great periods of art, both through performances of ancient music and through exhibitions of the instruments of which ancient music was performed. In this way, the growth of this branch of the arts will be correlated with others in the museum which present the history of man through his artistic creations. Tickets are being offered to members of the Founders society until Jan. 15, after which they will be on sale to the public. Special rates are given students.

FIVE NEW FORD glamour wagons long, low and loaded with Go!

Leave it to the station wagon leader to make the big station wagon news for '57! And what news! Wagons so big, so powerfully different, so full of fine-car prestige that you'll wonder how it can be done at all Ford prices.

Under the new front-hinged hood you'll find new power—Six power!—V-8 power!—proved-in-action power. The wheels, the frame, the chin-high roof lines—wherever you look you'll admire its long, lean greyhound grace.

Inside you'll find more usable loadspace than you ever dreamed possible. And for greater loading ease, the liftgate wraps right around the back of the car.

If your choice is the 9-passenger Country Squire, you'll be proud to pull up at the finest places in this new kind of glamour wagon with its luxurious, distinctive wood like trim. If your needs call for a 6-passenger station wagon with four doors, you'll love the spacious room of the new Country Sedan. And when you fold the rear seat into the floor, (a matter of mere seconds), you'll find there's almost nine feet of loadspace—nearly a foot more than ever before.

There's still another 4-door Country Sedan. Like the Country Squire, it has the extra third seat for 9-passenger room. And, as in all Ford wagons for '57, you have the new single-control handle which opens both the wrap-around liftgate and tailgate with one motion. And they can't be opened from inside!

There's good news, too, for fans of Ford's celebrated Ranch Wagon. This 6-passenger,

2-door model features Ford's new subdued tones, the last word in modern decor. The beautiful color-matched interiors are made of new wonder-wear fabrics which defy muddy little shoes and drippy chocolate cones. And for quiet, there's no wagon like Ford wagons!

In the wonderful way that Ford can take a fine thing and make it even finer, the Del Rio Ranch Wagon goes a step beyond the Ranch Wagon in style, fabrics and trim. It brings you 2-door, 6-passenger wagon-life at its luxurious best.

Better see for yourself—and soon. Take a Ford wagon for a spin. You'll agree that for styling it's a sweetheart. . . for work and power, it's a nimble, obedient slave!

New '57 Fords have toughest shakedown cruise in history! It was real tough but it was worth it. The '57 Ford broke 458 national and international records from 1 kilometer to 50,000 miles at Bonneville, Utah, in the most savage test in automotive history. For 50,000 miles, two '57 Fords averaged over 100 and 108 mph respectively. This time included all pit stops . . . the greatest endurance test of all time!
