 ger said, "I'm a little taken back. I didn't expect that (Feyerstein's resignation). There have been times when we haven't seen eye to eye on some things. I'm amazed at the charge of a coalition working against her."
 "It must certainly be embarrassing (public quarreling at council meetings) to her in her high position (doctor of philosophy at Wayne State University) as it has been to me from time to time," said Mackey.
 Charles D. Kelley, local land developer, suggested that Miss Feyerstein be requested to withdraw her resignation.
 "It's obvious that it is deliberate—a final opinion," said Johnson.

Appoint Downspout Board of Appeals

LATHRUP — Three local residents have been chosen to serve on the recently created downspout board of appeal. Those selected are Donald M. Hunter, 18550 Glenwood; Roland G. Naylor, 18652 Cambridge; and J. Clifton Lorne, 27081 Eldorado.
 All they have to do is accept the post, but if those selected do not want the post two alternates have been named to replace them. Alternates are Adam D. Malone, 27235 Goldensgate, and Helmut O. Krippendorff, 17551 Redwood.

County Supervisors Will Meet Jan. 17

SOUTHFIELD—Oakland County Board of Supervisors will probably consider the petition for election of a new Southfield charter commission when the board meets Jan. 17.
 Requirement that the petition shall be in the hands of the county board at least 30 days prior to their next regular meeting has been met. The petition was filed in Pontiac Dec. 18, which is exactly 30 days from the date of the supervisors' Jan. 17 meeting.

Mrs. James Shank's Parents Feted on 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Shank entertained over a 100 guests in their Warwick home Sunday afternoon and evening. The open house was in honor of Mrs. Shank's mother and father. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown of Detroit, who were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.
 Guests were from Detroit, Dearborn, Allen Park, and the area. The table was centered with an arrangement of cream-colored gladioli, combined with glided dried flowers, carrying out the golden theme of the party.
 Assisted by her daughter, Nancy, Mr. Floyd Johnson entertained neighbors and friends at a tea. Swedish motif used for the party and napkins bore the word "valle". Nancy and her mother were dressed alike in white bousses and matching skirts. Refreshments typical of the Swedish Christmas season were served.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hyvonen are returned from a two week vacation in Florida. Their trip took them to Clearwater, Tampa and St. Petersburg. The Hyvonsens motored south, but returned by train.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vandekerck of Mayfair lane were hosts for breakfast at Kingsley Inn and for a wedding reception at their home, following the marriage of their daughter, Joan, and William Barber, carrier, Ladies Queen of Martyns church Jan. 2.
 Over 100 guests attended the reception. A number of cocktail parties honoring the couple were events of the holiday season. The Dittrichs entertained almost 200 guests at an open house.
 Champagne punch and cocktails preceded the buffet supper served to guests from Birmingham, Grosse Pointe, and Franklin, as well as this area.
 Sharon entertained at a surprise birthday party for Betty Fraser of Franklin on Dec. 27. Eight girls from Derby junior high enjoyed dinner, a birthday cake and then breakfast with Sharon after their night of fun and a little slumber.
 Pam Dittrich entertained a few girls from her Scout troop for another slumber party. After dinner, the girls enjoyed ice skating on the river and even had enthusiasm and pep enough to skate again in the morning after breakfast.
 Guests were Joey Vogel, Jayne Husted, Gay DeRosier, Sally Bricker and English Pritchett. Judy entertained for dinner, a slumber party and breakfast. Guests were Libby Dunne, Peggy Nyland, Susie Gilmore, Cynthia Newcomb and Lynn Decker. Pam Dittrich and Peter Decker were among those who attended the teenage dance at the Birmingham Community House.
 Among numerous open houses held in the area during the holidays, was one on the 30th at the Riverside home of the Cret Guilmettes.
 The Peter Deckers of Rosevar entertained 50 couples on the 22nd. Guests were from Detroit, Bloomfield, Royal Oak and West Beverly.
 Donna Rehan was hostess to an after-dance party Dec. 28 at her Warwick home. Twenty couples were present.

Seek Candidates For Zoning Board

SOUTHFIELD — Candidates for seven vacancies on the township's zoning board will be interviewed at the township hall, 29080 Berg road Jan. 15 at 8 p.m.
 Township board recently amended the zoning law and one of the new requirements was a seven-member rather than a five-member board.
 Resignations of the entire zoning board were accepted Tuesday night and some of these men will undoubtedly be reappointed by the township board next Tuesday.

Hostess Club Meets Tuesday

WEST BEVERLY — Hostess club will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. L. J. Linsomper, 19429 Beverly. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. John E. Murphy and Mrs. Hugh Allerton.
 Block hostesses are asked to bring all unused dance tickets to the meeting for redistribution to areas where demand is exceeding supply. The dance will be Jan. 25 at the Birmingham country club.
