

Lathrup Students Home for Holidays, Return to College

Sonia Alexandroff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Alexandroff, 1848 Sunnyside, returned last week to the University of Michigan. Sonia is a sophomore, majoring in architectural design. She is a member of the University of Michigan choir and participated in the Christmas concert which featured Bach's "Magnificata," written for the Christmas season of 1723.

Beverly Slavsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slavsky, 27250 Rainbow drive, returned to classes at Loretto Heights college, Loretto, Colo., a suburb of Denver.

Beverly participated in the traditional lighting of the taper ceremony at the annual banquet held at the school prior to the Christmas vacation. She is a junior, majoring in philosophy.

Campout at D-Bar-A Provides Winter Sport for Explorers

Members of Lathrup's Explorer Post LC-1 are looking for a tempered steel toboggan or an indestructible sled. Last week they finished off a toboggan on a rocky hill at Kensington Park, and over the weekend four sleds went to their doom.

Outfitted in enough heavy clothing to equip them for sub-zero temperatures, the Post left Lathrup Friday evening for the D-Bar-A Scout ranch near Metamora where they found four inches of powdery snow and perfect winter camping weather.

AS PART of their initiation into the Post, Bob Knight and Ted Garrish were given the job of dish washing for every meal for the 12 members of the campment.

Explorers Darryl Pfister and Bill Mueller planned and purchased the food for the weekend including the de-lux pancakes for the pancake eating contest. Sunday morning, won by Gary Tishman who finished off a score of 11. Runner-up was Jeff Zattell who quit when he reached ten.

STEEVE MARSHALL made arrangements for a horseback tour of the ranch and in still wondering why he picked the most unsuitable horse for himself.

Listed among the minor accidents were Bob Ewart's glasses which received Scout first aid, and multiple bruises suffered by Bob Knight when his flying saucer connected with a tree.

Gene Courley and Alfred Hauer found the top-deck bunks fine for sleeping when the fellow, and the lower deck, just kicking upward and bouncing them out.

Accompanying the boys over the weekend were explorer advisor V. A. Zattell and Ted Garrish Sr.

Senior Pilgrim Fellowship Plans Giant Rally Jan. 27

LATHRUP—"Get us a doctor, a teacher, a merchant and a bartender!" Such was the request of senior Pilgrim Fellowship members of the entire Detroit Association to be guests at their giant rally to be held Jan. 27 at the Royal Oak Congregational church.

These invited laymen will face a selected panel of young people who will endeavor to guess the profession of each guest, and will invite him to explain the application of Christian principles to his work.

JAMES JARDAK, Southfield businessman, will be one of the featured guests, and members of the Lathrup church group will conduct the worship service. The rally which marks the opening of national Youth Week will start at 8:30 and continue into the evening with a dinner being served.

Youth Week will be observed at Community Church with members of the senior Pilgrim Fellowship group in charge of both morning services.

Jack Bole will conduct the service with scripture reading by Jack Givens, pastoral prayer by Linda Chapman and sermon by Larry Evans. Junior high young people will usher.

You will find many bargains in The Eccentric Classified Columns.

LATHRUP Social Briefs

The Andrew Carnegies of Glenwood found Christmas at the U.S. Air Academy both very exciting and very formal. They left for Denver on Friday before Christmas, and spent the holiday week with their son, Cadet William Carnegie who is in his first year at the academy.

A large party for local orphans with gifts and goodies was held Christmas afternoon, and the rest of the week crowded with formal parties given by the Academy personnel.

Daughter Nancy spent the holidays at Munich as her first year at the houseguest of last year, Miss Tekla Sieppie.

The Robert Poets of Shaker Heights, former Lathrup residents were guests during the New Years weekend of the Alan Millers of Glenwood.

Included in the Robert Vint holiday merriment was Nancy Hatenska of Hawaii. Unable to make the long trip home for Christmas, Nancy invited them to join the Vint family festivities by Barbara Gaydon, a grand daughter. Both girls are students at Western Michigan College.

Wing Lake Branch of WNFG Holds Welcoming Tea for New Members

Wing Lake branch of the WNFG held its January meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. D. W. Goodfellow, of Worlington road with Mrs. Cecil Cook as co-hostess.

Mrs. S. H. Garrison, chairman of the Michigan division on international cooperation was guest speaker.

This meeting was also the incoming tea for new members. Taken into the club were Mrs. Thomas Stacey, Mrs. L. F. Brydell and Mrs. Jack Mustard.

Members enjoyed a white elephant sale with Mrs. Douglas Buss as auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. Eino Nurme and three children of Carey Lane left the day after Christmas for Otsego Ski club where they spent the week. They found ten inches of snow and had heavy snow every day while there, so skiing was perfect.

The club provides separate evening dinner and programs for the younger children and teenagers.

There was a teenage New Year's eve party and one for the adults. Joining the Nurmes on New Year's eve were Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crockett.

The Nurmes will return to Otsego this weekend and spend the following week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crockett and Mrs. and Mrs. James Grisson joining them for the weekend.

Cadet Dennis W. Wright, son of the Nurmes, was appointed to membership in the Culver rifles honor guard. This is a select infantry organization at Culver Military academy where he is a second classman (junior) this year.

The honor guard performs formation drills at various academic functions. Wright is the first in his class of the highest ROTC honors that can be accorded a member of the academy infantry.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. William Kierke of Bellvue trail who will show colored slides of her recent European trip. Points of interest will include Monaco, France, Spain and Italy.

An invitation is extended to all in the area. Tea will be served following the program.

Friday evening at 7:30, Kallio Kiekers, a beginners square dance group, will meet at Beverly school.

New owners of the Barlow home, Mr. and Mrs. Brigham Allen are the Barlow's personal friends and invited for coffee were Mrs. Russell Seeburger, Mrs. Spencer Lee-King, Mrs. Geraldine King, Mrs. Charles Gregory and Mrs. Kenneth Kittle.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weiss of Corsout lane, were invited to a special roast goose dinner at the farm home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Clusson of Northville, Michigan. The Weiss granddaughters, have helped raise the flock of geese.

Second square dance of the year for the Wing Lake Farms association will be held in Bloomfield high school auditorium Jan. 22 from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door and the dance is open to everyone.

Bill Backus will be the caller and donuts and coffee will be served.

A holiday open house was given for all officers and directors of the Wing Lake Farms association by Edgar Debandt, president, and his wife Doreen. Other friends of the Debandts also were present.

Bells and bows was the theme of the party and the lower level recreation room was lavishly decorated with green bells and red bows.

Mr. and Mrs. Debandt will entertain 24 guests at cocktails and buffet supper before the coming Wing Lake Farm square dance.

Police Department Sponsors Skating Rinks in Lathrup

LATHRUP—Sponsored by the Lathrup police department through their youth recreation group, two large ice skating rinks have been opened at Southfield road and Rainwater road.

One of the rinks will provide a wide area for hockey stick swingers under the direction of Alce Bilsen, while the other will be used for plain and fancy skating.

Police cars on duty will make frequent checks on the rinks during skating hours. Floodlights have been provided for after dark skating.

SID ABELE, former captain and center for the Detroit Red Wings will hold a hockey clinic at the new skating rink Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. He will demonstrate how to handle sticks and face-off procedures.

A number of Lathrup residents have contributed to make the skating rinks possible, and the recreation program calls for little league baseball in the spring.

Head of the youth recreation program is Arley Van Meer, president, Joseph Zafarana, vice president, Police Chief Kenneth Farnum, secretary and treasurer.

Fred A. Wilsons Host 175 at Annual Party on Saturday

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Wilson of Lathrup avenue will host 175 Detroit industrial executives and their wives at the Wilson's annual customer party Saturday evening.

This will be the fifth year the Wilsons have held the party which is slated to take place at Red Run Golf club.
