Sydney Morrells Open Home, Hearts to Refugee Couple

The Sydney Morrells of Bingham Farms have opened both their home and their hearts to two young Hungarian refugees who have been staying with them since their arrival in this country early in December.

Trudy and Laszlo (their last name must be omitted for security reasons) left their families and fled from Budapest during the recent revolt. They were married in Detroit.

With help from the Morrells, Laszlo is becoming more proficient with our language and now has a job. Trudy did not know any English when she first arrived and she and Mrs. Morrell have developed a communication a little easier. They have had many amusing incidents trying to make each other understand.

Trudy and Laszlo will stay with the Morrells until Laszlo is well established in his job and the young couple find a place to live.

Maryjane Morrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Morrell, of Bingham farm, Bingham Farms, resigned Monday to the Centenary College for Women at Hackettstown, N. J. Maryjane is a freshman at the school, majoring in languages and music.

Youth Problems To Be Discussed At PTA Meeting

WALNUT LAKE—The juvenile delinquent problem will be the topic of a talk by George Taylor, chief assistant prosecuting attorney of Oakland county, before the Walnut Lake school PTA Monday evening at 8:00 p.m.

What is being done to abate it, and what parents can do to help in the home and school, will be included in the program. A discussion period will follow.

PTA executive board members believe this will be one of the more important meetings of the year.

ACTIVITIES are in full swing at the school again, and Mrs. Donald Kipp is heading up a crew of mothers, busy working in the re-modelled library to ready it for next week's opening.

In this connection, parents are being urged to save old newspapers during the winter months for the next paper drive, to take place in the spring.

Proceeds from sale of the papers will benefit the library. Bundles will be accepted at the school for security tied.

MRS. VINCENT ALAIN of Inkster road is heading up the new secretary, Mrs. William A. Turner. Mrs. Turner is accompanying her husband to Colgate university, where he will take up his duties in the post of assistant director of the alumni association.

Flowers in Rose Parade Highlight Of James Sanborns' California Trip

A first hand view of the gorgeous flowers used on the floats in the Rose Parade was the highlight of the California trip made by the James Sanborns, Sr., during the holidays.

This was the first time the couple had visited California at this time of the year, and they spent the day following the parade, inspecting the parked floats and taking colored movies and stills.

Sanborn, whose hobby is flowers, was fascinated with the color, detail and profusion of those used on the displays.

Disneyland came next on their list of sights to see, their main surprise here being the number of attractions to attract only the adult audience. They found adults far outnumbered the children present, even though they went on a weekend.

Wild Flowers Topic At Walnut Lake Garden Club Meeting

Walnut Lake Social Briefs

Mrs. Duncan H. Hammer, who left early in December to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Marshall in Lathrup, Va., was joined by her husband and son Ran for the Christmas holidays.

A welcome addition to the family group in Virginia was daughter Anne, a student at Hollins college in nearby Roanoke. They divided their time between the Marshalls and Mrs. C. D. Hammer, mother of Mr. Hammer, also a resident of Lynchburg.

The W. Carl Laymans of Darramoor road met old friends from Illinois in West Palm Beach, where they spent the holidays. Daughter Nancy and her former schoolmate had a wonderful time deep sea fishing and were rewarded with a good catch. The Laymans flew back home to the Braes last week.

The Fred J. Negri family have left their home on Putnam drive for a permanent move to California. Daughters Beverly and Carole who attend University of Michigan and Michigan State University respectively, expect to transfer to schools in that state.
