Village Group Wings Across Atlantic To Ski on Swiss, Austrian Ski-Runs

Far away places with strange sounding names are during the ski-minded to think in terms of a foreign vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Matthaei and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Emmett of the village will be joining a group who will wing their way across the Atlantic and try the ski run at Kitzbühl, Austria.

The second week of their trip will take them to Klosters, Switzerland, while the third trip many will forego skiing to sight-see, and the heavy few will go on to Grindelwald, Switzerland.

The entire group will meet again in Paris for the flight home the first of March.

Mrs. William H. Holt of Overhill road is honored in her home along with Mrs. Edwin F. Noth at a tea to honor Mrs. George V. Melas, wife of the Greek ambassador to the United States. Mrs. Noth is international hostess chairman for the general federation of Women's Clubs and Mrs. Holt heads the international relations department of Detroit Federation.

Mrs. James Wernig of Waddington and Mrs. Gordon Robinson, Waddington and Mrs. Russell Robins are entertaining at a combined linen shower and luncheon at Bloomfield Hills Country Club for 30 guests in honor of Jane Boyd who will become the bride of Lawrence Williams in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan H. Rich of Yarmouth have spent a few days recently with their daughter and son-in-law in Lanark, Ill. Lee Beers and son Royce spent last weekend ice fishing at St. Clair.

Mrs. J. P. Tomlinson of Burning Bush is chairman of table arrangements for "Gala Night," sponsored by the Mothers Club of University of Detroit high school on Feb. 9. Others on the committee are Mrs. Leo McEugue of Hupp Cross road and Mrs. E. A. Cristie of Ardmore road.

Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Currier of Ardmore have as house guest Mrs. Desmond's uncle, Mr. Edward Scherbat of Petoskey. Mr. Scherbat will shortly conclude his visit and continue his journey to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton W. Minto of Yarmouth are looking beyond the snow-lined streets to the spring when they will welcome the return of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Bray, who will be returning from the Philippines.

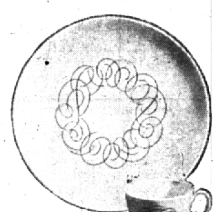

Mr. and Mrs. Minto traveled to Manila last summer to welcome the arrival of their granddaughter Margaret Dorothy. They spent several weeks in Japan and Hong Kong, China on the way to Manila.

Unfortunately, their visit coincided with the rainy season and they didn't do as much sight-seeing as they would have liked, but just being with their new granddaughter and meeting many interesting people in their travels overcame any disappointment resulting from the inclement weather.
