

Starr Commonwealth Auxiliary To Meet

Mrs. Roland J. Nelson of 120 Gullford road, Bloomfield Hills, will be hostess for the Jan. 22 meeting of the South Oakland auxiliary to Starr Commonwealth for Boys. Several boys will come over from Albion to present a program at the meeting, scheduled for 2 p.m. The auxiliary, with a membership of 250 women, raises funds for the school.

AT AN EARLY afternoon dessert event held last week at the home of Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, of Dorchester road, Birmingham, members of the local United Church Women's group honored their retiring president, Mrs. Newell Allen, of Park street. Mrs. Allen (center) watches as Mrs. Pomeroy serves cake to Mrs. Norman J. Ellis, (left) of Lahser road, Southfield township. Later the group presented Mrs. Allen with a gift of a travel case to express their appreciation after her two years' service as president.

Area Hostesses Participate In Telephone Benefit Bridge

Counting it as one of their projects for the year, the Eta Iota chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held a telephone bridge last night. Proceeds will go to the Birmingham association for handicapped children, an organization recently formed.

Bridge players gathered in 15 homes throughout Birmingham with two homes in this area participating. Those serving as hostesses were Mrs. Roger Cleary of Wetherbee road, having as her guests Mrs. Leo Case, Mrs. Robert Dittler, Mrs. John Ward, Jr., Mrs. Chloé Mulheim, Mrs. Ted Young, Mrs. Robert Kaufman, Mrs. James Adams, and Mrs. Charles Hooker. Another hostess for the evening was Mrs. James Carey. Her guests were Mrs. Edwin Galbreth, Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Josephine Rivard, Mrs. Carl Greene, Mrs. Anson Hedgecock, Mrs. Almon Durkee, Mrs. Don Mitchell, and Mrs. Robert Sims. At each of the homes, dessert and coffee were served prior to the card playing.

Already having three lovely daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Paul O'Kelly are happy to welcome their first son, Michael Patrick, born Jan. 10 at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital. The baby weighed 8 lbs. 4 oz. His sisters at home are Peggy, Judy and Pat.

BREMAR TWEED

If you thought you couldn't afford the luxury of wall-to-wall carpeting like this — you're probably wrong! First of all, this is TUFTWEVEN Braemar Tweed — one of the thirteenth broadloom carpets ever made. A lovely modern tweed — beautiful for contemporary or traditional — made for years of luxury and wear. Pure wool carefully combined with viscose carpet yarn. And second: the payments are painless and easy when you use our budget plan. Glorious color combinations of brown and green, aqua green, sandalwood beige, grey and turquoise, grey, light beige: You'll be surprised that such truly luxurious quality carpet can be so easy to afford.

WE HAVE TO

best around a little bit here in order to cover the ground in the smallest amount of SPACE.

First, we want to tell you about the progress of the "Flotsam & Jetsam" Sale which has been going on for one week. The ship is stabilizing — that is, it is no longer in the water. The sale is now known inside the shop as "KATZ & DAWGS". We figure that at the present rate we should be free of this stuff by the middle of August. If not — look what the Rochester Auction is going to get!
