Kingswood Column

By CAROLINE CROSS

Kingswood students were made aware of the fact that the Christmas holidays were over and past as they contemplated the first weekend after vacation, an extremely busy one. Last Friday night both the lower and upper schools of Kingswood joined Cranbrook for their first skating party on the new artificial rink at Cranbrook. The gathering was jointly sponsored by the athletic clubs of the schools.

Many seniors stayed home from the skating party in order to rest for the college board examinations which they underwent on Saturday. That evening part of the boarding department attended the Cranbrook movies, and others traveled to Detroit to see the film, "Anastasia."

To complete the weekend the sophomore class attended a tea on one of the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoey at Cranbrook. This busy weekend will be considered a final spree for Kingswood, as the next two weeks will be occupied in studying for midyear examinations, Jan. 21-26.
