

Two Area Women's Groups To Hold Combined Luncheon

When Mrs. Kenneth Bond of Westlady road hosted Valley Woods women's association board members Monday evening, plans were laid to combine the efforts of the area's garden club and the Women's group for a luncheon party to be held Feb. 7.

Tickets for the affair are being sold by officers of both groups and by wives of area road captains. Anyone wishing to help on table decorations or arrangements may call Mrs. Bert Gattward or Mrs. Ken Kittle.

At the women's association board meeting, Mrs. Elmer Weiss, ways and means chairman, reported on the successful sale of pecans and Mrs. Robert Fisher submitted the cost of the children's Christmas party.

The Edward Sayles of Westlady entertained their canasta club. After cards from which Mrs. Gordon Walker and Bernard Wilkie emerged winners, Mrs. Sayles served dessert and coffee. Seated at the decorated card tables were Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wertman and the Bernard Wilkies.

Albert Latta Family Home From Southland Holiday

Neighbors who were disappointed that the Albert Lattas of Snowshoe circle did not answer their holiday party bids should know that the Lattas were hanging shiny bulbs on a tree down where the breezes blow not frigid, but balmy.

The Lattas, all five of them, left before Christmas for Bal Harbor, Fla. Spending the holiday in the southland is not new to them; they've been doing it for at least eight years. Tom Latta, on his return home from Florida, had a Sunday skiing party on Gilbert Lake for school chums from the Shrine of the Little Flower high school. Royal Oak. Later, the crowd gathered over at the Latta home for hot food and coffee.

Away for a good part of the holiday season, too, was Mrs. John Lindquist of East Millway, who left for Boston just after Thanksgiving and returned home just before the big snow drifts made monitoring difficult. John Lindquist made a short visit to Boston, and of course, her Melinda made the trip with her mother.

Young newcomer, Pamela Decoster of Burnham drive is giving a farewell dinner next week for Laura Speding of Carriage road. Laura's parents, the Ray Spedings, are making their home in Jackson. The dinner at the Leonard Decoster home will include eight of Laura's young friends.

Welcome, too, to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Alexander of North Harsdale. These "newcomers" have lived in the Birmingham area for 20 years. They have a son, Tom, now living in Providence, R. I.

the young members. Mr. Paczas is partner of the Surveying Engineering Corp. and when time permits, enjoys hunting and golf.

Mrs. Ray Voss of Eastlady road entertained friends at brunch last Thursday. As this was the morning of the heavy storm, the winter setting from the dining room picture window made a beautiful background for the lace-covered buffet table.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Neill of W. 14 Mile rd. were hosts to a group of 20 friends for cocktails and buffet supper.
