

round the towns news The Birmingham Eccentric

LATHRUP • FRANKLIN • WINTER LAKE • GILBERT LAKE • WALNUT LAKE • FOXCROFT • W. & E. BEVERLYS • THE BERKSHIRES • VALLEY WOODS • SOUTHFIELD, BLOOMFIELD & W. BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIPS.

Unfinished Jobs on Evergreen Sewage Disposal Costs

Sidelights

By WILLIAM H. THOMAS
BILL PROVENCER of Easton, Pa., a professional square dance club Saturday evening, was a big disappointment to his daughter when he came home from a fishing trip near Bay City without a single fish.

Voters Get Two Elections For Same Price April 1

By WILLIAM H. THOMAS
SOUTHFIELD—Oh, what a day of confusion April 1 will be in Southfield.

Vote to Transfer $3,750 to Meet Lathrup Payroll

LATHRUP—Transfer of funds to pay salaries of Road Superintendent Vernon Hodges and Building Inspector Gerald Stone were approved Monday by a 3-1 vote.

ON ONE BALLOT voters will be asked to agree on the charter commission from an estimated 25 to 35 candidates.

Mathematicians would have a field day trying to figure the odds of a chance meeting of two people who were born at the same hospital on the same day, attended by the same doctor.

West Bloomfield LWV Plans Rally

WEST BLOOMFIELD—Executive board of the West Bloomfield League of Women Voters met at the home of Mrs. Campbell Harvey at Orchard Lake to plan a rally for township spring elections on Feb. 18.

First Girl Born In Dooley Family In 36 Years

LATHRUP—Although she was born Dec. 11, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dooley of 215 E. 12th St. still awaited their good fortune for a baby.

Den 1 Cub Scouts Collect Clothing For Refugees

FRANKLIN—Aroused by the publicity given the sad plight of the Hungarian refugees, the Cub Scouts in Den 1 decided to do something to help. They are collecting used clothing and blankets which will be sent to Hungary via the air lift.

Interview Candidates for Paks and Recreation Board

SOUTHFIELD—Four township residents who expressed a desire to take a seat on a Parks and Recreation Committee were interviewed by township trustees Tuesday night.

Propose $1/2 Million Bond Sale

LATHRUP—Detroit bonding attorneys are preparing a proposal which the city council wants to put on the April 1 ballot asking voters to approve a $540,000 general obligation bond issue for a system of flood relief sewers and a collecting sewer to carry sewage now being dumped into the Evans ditch to one central point where it can later be tied to the large Evergreen sewer to Detroit.

Supervisor Hulet Proposes Advisory Steering Committee

BLOOMFIELD—Civic leaders throughout the township will gather at the township office Jan. 31 to hear Township Supervisor Arno Hulet present his plan for an advisory committee which will serve in an advisory capacity to the township board.

Youth Week Rally Scheduled Feb. 3

Observance of Youth Week among churches of the Southfield area will be concluded on Feb. 3 with a giant rally at the church of the Southfield Baptist Church, 9 the following.

Two Suffer Minor Injuries in Crash

SOUTHFIELD—Two township motorists were slightly injured Saturday when one car struck the other from behind at Nine Mile and Northwestern highway, according to Southfield police.

Make Two Requests Of Circuit Court

LATHRUP—Two pleas were made in Lathrup filed this week with Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland in regards to the contempt proceedings brought by State Welfare Resources Commission who charges that not enough action has been taken by the city to abate Rouge River pollution.

Franklin Village Man Stabbed and Robbed

SOUTHFIELD—Police are investigating the robbery-stabbing of a 32-year-old Franklin Village man who was attacked by two men as he waited for a traffic light to change at 12 Mile and Telegraph last Friday.

Sid Abel Will Referee Hockey At Lathrup Rink

LATHRUP—Weather permitting, Sid Abel will referee the hockey game for boys between the ages of 10 and 15, Saturday at 12:30 p.m. at the new Lathrup hockey rink.

Citizens' Committee Will Quiz Bloomfield Election Candidates

BLOOMFIELD—A citizens' committee was formed last week with the purpose of keeping an eye on high government and community development.

Southfield BPW Plan Luncheon Meet

SOUTHFIELD—Feb. 4 meeting of the Southfield Business and Professional Women will be a luncheon at Birmingham Country club. Plans for the meeting were completed at a board meeting last night, held at the home of Bernice Reid of Southfield road.

Tailoring Classes Offered on Tuesdays

SOUTHFIELD—Classes in pre-tailoring and advance fitting and material assembly will be offered at Southfield high school each Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., according to LeRoy Guttenberger, adult education director.

Proud Papa

SOUTHFIELD—Fireman Charlie Kosch showed a photo of his new daughter when she was just six hours old to fellow members of the Southfield Fire department. The eight pound girl was born late Friday night in Mr. Carmel hospital. Mother and baby are now home at 28745 Marshall.

Lathrup Will Start Dutch Elm Program 3 Million

LATHRUP—City fathers voted to purchase three spraying equipment to combat Dutch elm disease, but decided to rely on voluntary contributions to finance spray and pay for labor to give the more than 4,000 trees a dormant or early spring spray.

Angling Road School Addition To Be Dedicated

SOUTHFIELD—Dedication ceremonies and open house for Angling road school's new addition will be held Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. at the school.

WATER BILLS may be paid by Southfield township residents at three Detroit Bank and Trust branches located at Northland, Grand River-Redford, and Woodward-14 Mile road.

SEVERAL LOTS behind the Nelson Realty Co. office at 10 Mile and Southfield were rezoned from residential to vehicular parking "P" zoning to serve the needs of commercial property along Southfield.

WHEN the little school got too crowded through the ensuing years, some of the children were transferred to makeshift quarters.

AT THE MEETING, which was an adjournment of the regular session, the board accepted the bid of George H. Hunt, Jr. for 45,000 water bond issue. Hunt's bid was for a series of 45,000 bonds at 4.5 per cent to a long-term $6,000,000 issue at 2.5 per cent to mature in 1977. The overall average was approximately 4.27 per cent.

ELSEWHERE IN THE ECCENTRIC

$100,000 YMCA Unit Expected in 1958

Page 1-A Society Sections B, C, D

Church Pages 6, 7-D

News Pages 7, 8-B

Bloomfield Village News Page 3-C

North Adams News Page 1-C

'Trouble is, by the time we're old enough to know the world like a book, our eyes go bad!'

FRANKLIN—Aroused by the publicity given the sad plight of the Hungarian refugees, the Cub Scouts in Den 1 decided to do something to help. They are collecting used clothing and blankets which will be sent to Hungary via the air lift.

WATER BILLS may be paid by Southfield township residents at three Detroit Bank and Trust branches located at Northland, Grand River-Redford, and Woodward-14 Mile road.

SEVERAL LOTS behind the Nelson Realty Co. office at 10 Mile and Southfield were rezoned from residential to vehicular parking "P" zoning to serve the needs of commercial property along Southfield.

WHEN the little school got too crowded through the ensuing years, some of the children were transferred to makeshift quarters.