

New Families Introduced

LATHRUP — Newcomers to Lathrup Village are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Andrews, of Rockham. The family moved to Lathrup from St. Clair Shores. They have three children, Gary, 15, Patricia, 13 months and Joan, 7 months.

Andrews has his own business, the Diamond T Detroit, Inc., and is also general manager of Motor Truck Services. He attended University of Detroit.

Gary celebrated his 15th birthday Wednesday with a family dinner at Palombo's and birthday cake at home.

Other newcomers to Lathrup are Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Anderson, of Bungalow. With their three children, Harry E. Jane 2 and Robert I. they moved from Lincoln Park.

Anderson is assistant sales manager at McLouth Steel. He is a graduate of Gonzaga university in Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Anderson attended Wayne university and worked for airlines before her marriage. She has since been active in the women's aerobics nautical organization.

The Andersons were born and raised in the same neighborhood in Lincoln Park and went all through school together.

Lathrup Players To Meet Jan. 31
LATHRUP—A meeting of the Lathrup Players has been scheduled for Jan. 31 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Cugger.

Player members will try out for roles in the skit to be presented before the Lathrup Women's Club in April and the May PTA program.

The Players are also preparing a skit for entertainment at the Community Congregational Church tenth annual banquet to be held Feb. 15.

Two New Brownie Troops Organized; Need Leaders

LATHRUP—At Monday's Lathrup neighborhood meeting of girl scout leaders, it was announced that two new Brownie troops will begin meetings as soon as leaders are found and trained for them.

Mrs. Webster Owen, neighborhood chairman, reports a training program will be arranged for intermediate and senior girl scouts early in April. Last year 41 girls participated in the swimming lessons offered to scouts in the Lathrup neighborhood.

Mrs. George E. Jacquillard, girl scout council chairman reported the scouts had sold 998 calendars, and soon be swinging into their cookie sales.

THE GIRLS will take orders for cookies from Feb. 11 to Feb. 18 March 18 delivery. Profits from the cookie sale are used to improve and enlarge the South Oakland camps as no U.F. funds are available for camping.

Mrs. Berlin Ackles, Jr., day camp committee chairman sent out a plea for 220 mothers who will be needed this summer to help handle 1,000 girls at the South Oakland day camp.

This year the camp will have four 8-day sessions. Senior girl scouts will be used as program aides at the camp where their experience is a help to leaders.

Diane Anderson, Karyle Howard Observe Birthdays

LATHRUP — Diane Lynn Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Anderson, San Jose, celebrated her eighth birthday Jan. 1 with a luncheon followed by games, prizes and favors.

Diane's guests were Tom Payton, Kathy Forbes, Ann Doering, Laura and Sally Ward, Kathy Zafarena, Elie's Martin, Jean Graveline, Don Ewers and Debbie Spott, all Lathrup.

Also her two brothers, Bruce and David, and her cousins, Carole Anderson of Detroit and Royal Crane of Pontiac.

Karyle was assisted by her younger sister Claudia who wore a matching dress in pink and white. The party theme was blue and yellow.

Out of town guests were Pamela Kellum of Dearborn, Krill Mills, Lynn Ann Gortner, Pat Gardner and Bobbie Riddell of Wyandotte and Ben and Russell Morrison of Trenton.

Girl Scouts Have Weekend of Winter Fun at Camp Narin

LATHRUP—Riding in a caravan of five cars Jan. 11 Lathrup's girl scout senior troop 165 left for Camp Narin for a snowy weekend of fun.

Beside leaders Mrs. Thomas Gibbs, Mrs. Daniel Hines, and Mrs. Robert Ewart, drivers were Mrs. A. E. Little, Mrs. Alvin Plattner and D. M. Hines, the only man on the trek in case anyone got stuck in the deep snow.

Whereas last year, the troop could only look at the beautiful new toboggan slide, and skate on watery ice, with this year's snow they were able to give the slide a fine workout, and get in lots of sharp skating on the perfect ice.

When the outdoor fun was over, there was a warm fireplace to sit around, and a senior troop from Birmingham to chat with.

The outdoor girls were Barbara Craig, Kay Plagittes, Sandy McCol, Nancy Gildersleeve, Marie Viala, and Sherran Walter.

Square Dance Club

LATHRUP—Members of the Village Square Dance club serving on Saturday evening's food committee were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie chairman, assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Harold Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. George Siftwith and Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Dean.

is a condensed history of the title of your property. It summarizes the various links in the title chain, showing all prior owners, and every vital document affecting your property. It is in effect, the "pedigree" or "family-tree" of real estate. It must be brought up-to-date or newly "certified" before each change of ownership to assure evidence of clear title. It is a valuable document—guard it well.

This magnificent home is set on a gently sloping hill, surrounded by 4 acres of lovely grounds, landscaping and beautiful trees. The house is solid—built to endure; yet it is exquisitely designed and completely charming throughout.

Boy Scouts, Cubs Plan Annual Events

LATHRUP—Troop LC-1 boy scouts and Post LC-1 explorers are planning a court of honor during boy scout week on Feb. 13, at Lathrup school. Both units will receive their charters and recognize the advancements earned by their members. All parents are invited to attend.

Cub Scout Pack LC-2 held its January meeting last week at Lathrup school. Following a skit by the boys of den 4 "What's on the Moon?", the inspection trophy was awarded to den 5. The club will make bird feeders to defray expenses of the pack this year.

On Feb. 20 the club will hold a Blue and Gold dinner which will take the place of the pack meeting.

D. W. Armstrongs Visit Son at Howe Military Academy

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Armstrong, Coral Gables, visited their 13-year-old son Don at Howe Military school, Howe, Ind. Sunday.

During this, his first year at Howe, Don played on the football team in the fall and is now a member of the track team.

Accompanying them on the trip was Don's friend, Michael Mead of Topeka, Kan, who is visiting his grandmother in Detroit. He will remain here until his family comes in two weeks to make their home in Lathrup Village.
