

Franklin Cubs Receive Awards Tonight at Meeting

FRANKLIN—A movie of the Stanley Cup play-off will be shown at the Cub Scout pack meeting at 7:30 tonight in the multi-purpose room of the Franklin school.

Den 9 will conduct the opening ceremony, den 5 will present a skit, and den 7 will close the meeting. Den 1 is in charge of arranging chairs.

Cubmaster Jim O'Neill will present the Webelos award to Jim Runnel and Mark Lackner who are now ready to join B-11 Boy Scouts.

The Lion award will be received by Bill Tracy, Roger Fraser, Dave Kaweki, Rusty Duffy, Fritz Finfgeld, Donn McIntosh, Joe McCourt, and Tom Meyers.

Lion gold awards will be presented to Roger Fraser, Tom Meyers, Joe McCourt, Donn McIntosh and Fritz Finfgeld. Tom Meyers and Donn McIntosh will also receive the lion silver arrow.

Franklin Women Join Suburban Golf Association

FRANKLIN—"If winter comes can spring be far behind?" was in the minds of a dozen women who met for luncheon last week at Glen Oaks and organized the Women's suburban golf association.

The league hopes to interest about 50 women in Franklin, Birmingham, Farmington, Redford and Livonia in playing golf every Tuesday morning beginning May 7.

There will be three fields of play to accommodate beginners and experts. They are planning weekly and monthly tournaments with special prizes and will climax the season with a banquet in September.

Representing Franklin at this organizational meeting were Mrs. W. B. Byers, Mrs. Kenneth Nichols and Mrs. Robert Squiers who will be on the tournament committee.

Mrs. Lorne Blanchfield is co-chairman of the social committee. Mrs. Oriand Ellis who will head the prize committee and Mrs. Jack Steyskal who will work on the rules committee.

Elected president of the association was Mrs. Charles Ford; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas McPhail, both of Farmington and secretary, Mrs. Harold Burley of Livonia.

Anyone interested in joining the association should make a reservation for the next luncheon meeting, March 19, with any of these mentioned.

Claudia Crete Leaves Tuesday For Figure Skating Competition

Claudia Crete, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Crete of Woodside drive, leaves Tuesday for Sioux City, Iowa, to enter the midwestern figure skating competition for children under 13.

Until the competition actually starts on Thursday she will not know what figure she will be asked to execute so she must be well prepared. Those placing among the top eight, will qualify for the free skating competition.

In Buffalo recently, Claudia was by far the youngest skater entered against 22 others. She placed seventh. When the Cranbrook rink opened Claudia performed this same solo for the local audience.

Claudia has been skating for just three years at the Detroit Skating club. Last summer she spent six weeks studying and practicing at Guelph, Ontario. This is her first year of competition.

FRANKLIN—Newcomers to the Ten Hill section of town are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris formerly of Detroit. They have two children, Charles, 2, and Sandra Lee, 2 months old.

Mr. Morris is with Mercury Plastics in Van Dyke. He is an enthusiastic golfer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNabb and daughter, Kathie, 6, have moved into their new home on Apple Tree lane. For the last four years they have lived in Detroit, and before that their home was in Ohio. Mr. McNabb is with Art Group Inc. in the Penobscot building Detroit.

John Reinhart has earned the Bear silver arrow. The wolf award will be given to Mike Ford, Robert Bartlett, Jim O'Neill, Dick Probst, Dave McAlpine and Ronnie Webster. Bill Adams will receive the wolf gold and silver arrow.

We Heard It Said By:

GEORGE ALTMANSBERGER, co-chairman of the boy scout paper drive: "We hope everyone will have their magazines and newspapers ready for the scouts when they come around Saturday to collect. Troop B-17 depends on these drives for much of its financial needs and as the price of paper has dropped we'll just have to collect two truck loads instead of one."

Woodcreek Men Elect Officers

WOODCREEK—At a recent meeting of the Woodcreek men's association, Andrew Dymda was elected president; Leon Taylor, vice president; Marvin Tilton, secretary; and Alex Kennedy, treasurer.

New board members are Robert Swift, Don Wells and William Thompson. The next association meeting will be Jan. 31.
